PREFACE

“Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in good health, even as thy soul prospereth. (3 Jn. 1:2)

One of the biggest obstacles man has yet to overcome is the religious notion that equates poverty with piety. God does not desire for His people to live in a continual state of lack, want, and need, but it is God’s desire that we prosper. God does not get any joy out of our lack, for He came to give us abundant life.

So, what are you thinking? What is on your mind? For that which is on your mind will determine where you will go in life. Thinking determines your state of consciousness, or your state of mind. Your thoughts will unlock the secrets and mysteries of life. So, what are you thinking? What is on your mind?

Cosmic Economics is for the thinking mind. If you do not believe God wants you to think, then this book is not for you. If you are content with a form of godliness that denies the power thereof, then this book is not for you. Cosmic Economics strips God of humanity’s cloak of religiosity and reveals the mystery of divinity within YOU.

This is not a book for the timid, for Cosmic Economics will propel you into the womb of transformation and change, and compel you to emerge with new power, renewed strength, increased vitality, and overwhelming confidence, knowing who YOU are.

Cosmic Economics empowers God’s people to understand that money is not a material matter, but something far greater. Money is spiritual. The right thought about money will cause people to access money on all levels: emotional, psychological, spiritual, and the lowest level, which is material.

True wealth is a demonstration of the wisdom that resides within a man’s mind. If you are able to think, strategize and plan, your wealth will increase according to the proportion of your wisdom. True wealth is not determined by the amount of money a man has in his hands, but it is measured by his ability to create more substance. Therefore, as we begin to understand the vast dimensions of wealth, we will realize that money is within. Money is a state of consciousness, for consciousness is the only currency, and currency is only consciousness.

Get ready to see God in his nakedness, to perceive His naked Truth with a mind that is accepting and open to what He desires for you to see. There is a glory that will be revealed in you, as the mystery of godliness is revealed to you, for Christ in YOU is the hope of glory!

So, what are you thinking? What is on your mind?

Bishop E. Bernard Jordan
Our company's economic success today is a direct result of the principles Bishop Jordan has taught my brother Joseph Simmons, better known as “Rev. Run” (formerly Run of the rap group RUN-DMC). Bishop Jordan is not your average preacher. He's sort of like a Christian Yogi with a church up in the mountains called Holy Ground. When I first picked up the book Cosmic Economics, I was shocked at the truths that seem to run parallel to what I have learned over the years about money.

I only read a few books this year and Cosmic Economics was one. Half way through the book, I called Bishop Jordan and spoke to him at length about how rare it is to find a cleric speaking truths of this magnitude about money. No one has the uncanny insight that he does relating to prosperity and money being a spiritual entity.

Cosmic Economics is a book that explains the spiritual side of money, and there is an awakening about simple truths that people tend to overlook in the day-to-day run of life. I would read a few pages and immediately begin to identify with these timeless truths. I was surprised to know that there was someone out there teaching this “in the church”!!

Bishop Jordan took my brother, who was on the brink of despair and taught him principles that have made my brother a successful entrepreneur in every sense of the word. If you are tired of doing the same thing over and over again, expecting different results, try reading Cosmic Economics, it will catapult you to the top of the heap.

INTRODUCTION

Many of Christendom’s most revered saints and mystics knew the mystery; many died martyrs for revealing it. Others were harshly persecuted, for a carnal religious mind exalts the traditions of men and will fight the things of the Spirit. Jesus’ disciples understood, for they had an awareness of God that transcends that of many of us today.

Periodically, mystics arose within the Catholic Church, such as St. Thomas of Aquinas, Hildegard of Bingen, St. Augustine, and St. Francis of Assisi, who bore witness to the deeper things of God. Prophets of different orders arose, such as Nostradamus and Rasputin, who walked in certain realities and left a testament in the earth of the essence of a truth they declared. Yet few understood.

Still others caught a glimpse of their identity in God, like Frederick Douglass, W.E.B. DuBois, Mary McLeod-Bethune, Sojourner Truth, Nat Turner, Martin Luther King, Jr., and Malcolm X. Their oneness with God empowered these prophets of liberation to affect their world.

The revelation of this mystery that these mystics and prophets comprehended and demonstrated is contained in the pages of this book. Although few have fully understood it, it is my hope that you will, upon reading this book, live out the truths and the principles contained herein. For this book has been written for that precise purpose — empowerment.

Jesus came that we “might have life and have it more abundantly.” (Jn. 10:10) The operative word is “might,” for if we are not diligent to apprehend our full inheritance in Christ, we will go to our graves loving Jesus, yet living a mediocre life. The concepts contained herein are not of wildfire, independent revelation. Quite to the contrary, these are timeless truths extracted from the Holy Writ and cloaked from the eyes of those who cannot or will not see.

This book will challenge you. The following pages are permeated with degrees of revelation that will stir you and shake you up. By the time you have read the first half of this book, you will be stripped of many of your “pet” illusions about God and about yourself. You may find yourself periodically resting from the labor of assimilating these concepts. Your entire perception of God will undergo a radical, cataclysmic mutation. I hope you’re ready, because once a mind expands, it will never again fit into a clandestine box of ignorance. You will never be the same! But remember, you become responsible for what you hear, and to whom much is given, much is required.
CHAPTER 1: FOUNDATIONS OF COSMIC ECONOMICS

"I Am"

The understanding of who we are starts with the understanding of who "I Am."

The Word of God created the world. God did not look at the chaos of unformed purpose and say, "Man, I've got a problem here." He just started speaking a creative word. When He reached the sixth day, He said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness..." (Gen. 1:26) There is a difference between man created and man-made. God created you in His own image and after His likeness, but what He created, you cannot see.

God formed man from the dust of the earth. There is a difference between being created and being formed. Many of us think that this human form is man. The real you is not form. The real you has been created in His image and after His likeness. He did not form your physical body after His image and likeness. Therefore, we all have different features. We all look different because of what He formed and created. However, the true essence of who we are is "I Am" and is found within. The Bible says, "Be still and know that I am God." (Ps. 46:10) Many of us do not like to journey within because we refuse to sit still long enough to "be still and know." Be still and know what? What do you know when you are still? You know, "I am God." You are moving all things through consciousness, and you have put the flesh on hold.
While Esau was in the field, Jacob's mother was being still and knowing. She said to her son, Jacob, "Listen, son, I am God." Jacob got still with her and realized, "I am God," to the point where God came out of Him and said to Isaac, "I am Esau, thy first-born..." (Gen. 25:24-34; 27:1-46)

"The Lord said unto my Lord, sit down at my right hand until I make thine enemies thy footstool." (Ps. 110:1) The Lord is always talking to the Lord. God is always talking to God. When you start getting into consciousness, you begin to say, "I am that." It takes you further in understanding, than "God is in the bird" or "God is in the elephant," or "God is in man." It goes deeper than that. God is the bird. God is the elephant. God is the man.

As a matter of fact, this world, as we can look at it, really is the body of God. It is the body that you can handle. Everything in the world that you see is the body of God. Your physical body is not the truth of you. You appear in this form, at this given time, and in this particular space. However, you are not married to this form. This form is just a suit that you wear, like the clothes that you are wearing at this present moment.

The Bible says, "...for the things which are seen are temporal; but those things which are not seen are eternal." (2 Cor. 4:18) That is why you must operate from the realm where the action is, and that realm is the unseen realm. Neville quotes in his book Resurrection, "Instead of seeing the thing as thine will be done, see it as thy will is done. The works are finished. The principle by which all things are made visible is eternal."

"I am" and the Father are one, and so every effort to make contact with God would be like trying to make contact with your "Self." Once you understand that your "Self" is God, you are challenged to move to a new level, because the kingdom of God is within you. Therefore, there is no longer a need to search. You have recognized the words, "I am God," but instead of accepting this truth, you have denied it by your actions. As we develop the ability to relax all mental and physical efforts, we enable God to reveal Himself to us, and He will declare, "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." (Heb. 13:5)

There is nothing that we can do or think that will enable us to find God. Our relationship to God is already that of oneness. God is, therefore I am.

Now, what is God? Jesus' concept of God was, the Father within. Paul's concept of God was, the Christ, but it still was a concept. If we think of God as life, or mind, or love, we are thinking only of certain facets of God. God is infinite, and in speaking of God as love, we are only speaking of one of these facets, since love is just one of the many ways in which God presents Himself. We can speak of God as mind, or as law, but these are only two of the many ways in which God presents Himself. So, when we understand God, we must understand that many of the things that we see as God are really a manifestation, or the way the Father presents Himself. But God just "is." He is infinite. It is hard to name God, because once you name Him, you lame Him, and He ceases from being God.

Many people get caught in a trap when they talk about what God will do, or what God will be. God “is.” He is not a “will-be” God. We must enter into consciousness about “God is.” Joel Goldsmith refers to God “is-ing.” We must get into the “is-ness” of God. God just “is.” What is God doing? He is “is-ing,” like I am “I am-ing.” I am moving in my “I am-ness.” Therefore, to state, “I shall be well,” is to say, “I am ill.” To say, “I am going to have money someday,” is to say, “I am poor.” To say, “I am going to be all right,” is to say, “I am not all right.” You are taking the name of the Lord in vain. In fact, any blessing you have in the future will not be a blessing because it says that you are proclaiming curse upon yourself. Add to the recognition of supply by claiming, “I am that. It is done. Thank you, Father.” So, therefore you should never claim, “It is going to be all right.” No, it “is” all right. Neville states, “When you say ‘I am’ you are declaring yourself to be first person, present tense; there is no future. To know that ‘I am’ is to be conscious of being.”

Consciousness Is Who I Am

“...Greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.” (1 Jn. 4:4)

The conscious and the subconscious can be seen as male and female, respectively. The conscious mind (male), is the initiator, and the subconscious mind (female), carries out the will of the conscious mind. When the conscious mind and the subconscious mind are properly synchronized, they portray the picture of a perfect marital union. The subconscious mind (female) will not argue about what is placed on the inside. Once the conscious mind (male) is convinced of a truth, the subconscious mind (female) receives it.
Cosmic Economics

God is consciousness, and consciousness is infinite. Your consciousness embodies everything, and therefore it embodies supply. God is in your super-conscious waiting for your faith to touch his realm, so that he can put his faith in and say, “If it be thy will, you will transfer it to your conscious mind in manifestation.” So, what have you been thinking about all day? What is on your mind? You have to stop and meditate, because whatever thoughts you have all day are the thoughts that will manifest in form. When your thinking is right, you can establish every form you desire. When you correct your thoughts, you will learn to eliminate the ills and the sorrows of life. When you start thinking correctly, another law goes into operation that cancels out wrong thoughts. You correct wrong thoughts by replacing them with good thoughts. Some call wrong thoughts “the devil,” but they are better known as “otherness.” Any thought that is other than God is an enemy.

Thoughts affect every aspect of your life. They reveal your understanding of universal law. Universal law is God’s law, which is always at work. The universe does not lie. The universe serves the deserving. The Bible says in Prov. 23:7, “For as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.” For example, if a person says, “I don’t have any friends,” they have been living by the law of unfriendliness. Prov. 18:24 says, “A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly…” The law is either working for you or against you. It is dependent upon how you position yourself. The law will work for whosoever, wheresoever, because the law is universal. You can establish everything you want manifested in your life according to the power that worketh in you.

You must give attention to the predominant mental state, for it will regulate the actions and direction of your forces, faculties, and personal destiny. You must discover the foremost thought on your mind, and continually discipline your mind. Your mind is always creating matter. The room in which you are reading was created by someone’s mind. The car you drive is the creation of someone’s mind. You are wearing the creation of someone’s mind. You are wearing someone’s thoughts. Thoughts are things. Everything around you is a thought. What kind of thoughts are you leaving behind?

Every condition in your life is a materialization of your mind. For example, the body has never been sick. The only thing that has ever been sick is the mind. The disease signifies something that is “dis-at-ease” in the mind, and as a result is manifesting itself in the body. Every condition is a materialized state of mind. If you change your thinking, you will change where you are going. If you change your “stinking thinking,” you will change where you will be living. The word of God must be spoken to the mind instantly and constantly. You must tell your mind what to think, and you must tell every one of your feelings how to feel. Failure to do this will cause you to catch someone else’s spell that is telling your mind what to think and telling your feelings how to feel.

You must give orders to your mind and set conditions for your feelings. This is dealing with cosmic consciousness or Cosmic Economics, for your mind is the only currency, or the real currency, that exists. Consciousness is only currency. You have to program your body to react. Once you understand these truths, you will begin to come into the benefits that were ordained for you.

Meditation

Cosmic Principle #3

What you “think on” will determine what you get.

According to Neville, “Meditation is the art of becoming conscious of being.” The Bible says, “Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.” (Phil. 4:8) What you “think on” will determine what you get.

“This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.” (Jos. 1:8) This book of the law must stay in your mouth. “But thou shall meditate…” For the believers, you are supposed to meditate day and night. This means that God intended for you to become the masters of meditation. Many have been afraid to use the word “meditation.” The church has created “scarecrows.” Scarecrows were put in the field to scare the crows away so they would not eat the grain. Some people have paid more attention to the “scarecrow” than to the “grain” that is in the field that the Father intended for you to “eat.”

However, you must be a doer of the word. That means that in order for faith to operate in your life, you must have corresponding action. When you meditate day and night, and you do all that is written therein, God says “For then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.” So your prosperity and your good success is dependent upon that which you meditate. Therefore, you must learn how to meditate day and night.

You cannot have just one thought. You must continuously be conscious of being "it" until "it" is perfectly expressed. I have to keep consciously saying "it", being "it", and making affirmations of "it" until "it" is perfectly expressed. For example, let's say my "it" is putting the first church in the sky. We would have a sanctuary on an airplane, and conduct services in the air every Sunday at 11:00 a.m. We would go to the airport, board the plane and just fly over a city and have service. After landing somewhere for lunch, we would then get back on the plane and have evening service on the way back home. If that was in my imagination, I should have enough finances to make it happen. Then we will have divine rights to call it "Rapture Unlimited," and you will hear:

"If you want to be in Rapture Unlimited, join Bishop E. Bernard Jordan at La Guardia Airport at 10:00 a.m. for boarding. Services will begin at 11:00 a.m. in the friendly skies, where we will be caught up to meet Him in the air!"

Notice that I became conscious of being "it". True wealth is when you can finance your imagination. If you are not able to finance your imagination, you must continue consciously being "it" until "it" is perfectly expressed.

"Mental" housecleaning is vital to your survival.

When in meditation, it is important to enter into a state of silence. During this time of silence, you are visualizing where you want to go. In essence, you are doing "mental" housecleaning, undoing some things within yourself that, if left there, would cause you to fail. "Mental" housecleaning is vital to your survival. The Bible says, "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God..." (1 Cor. 3:16) Your temple on the inside projects your temple on the outside. What you worship in, determines what you live in. You will never live in anything less than your house of worship. Once you understand how you worship in your temple and how your temple is kept on the inside, it will determine how you will live on the outside. The Bible says, “If a man keeps not his own house, how can he keep the church of God?” What is it saying to you? The way in which a man runs his house will determine the way in which he runs his home. Therefore, if you fail to keep your own home, or your own temple, how can you keep the larger temple, or the larger realm of what you want to influence? It is time to clean up your house!

AFFIRMATION

I am my highest thoughts about myself. I am my deepest meditation. I am my most beautiful self-contemplation. I am the greatest vision that I have ever visualized. I am my sweetest dream come true. I am the happiest feeling that I have ever felt. This is that which I am. This which I know myself to be is healthy, happy, loving, beloved, successful and prosperous. This which I know myself to be is the Christ, the son of the living God. I see Him as He is in me, through me, and as me, my eternal, infinite, divine Self.

This which I know myself to be is the answer and is not entangled in any problem. This which I know myself to be is the fullness and abundance of all things, and is not beset by any need, lack, or limitation. My eternal thought moves on my undisturbed affairs. This is that which I am, the eternal, infinite, absolute, positive good reality for myself, everyone and everything that concerns me, consciously, unconsciously, and subconsciously. I now speak only the word of God, the word of good.

The word now becomes manifest in my life. God in me, be glorified!
CHAPTER 2:
AWAKENING TO DIVINITY

Resolve To Mature

Cosmic Principle

It is dangerous to awaken a mind too soon.

It is dangerous to awaken a mind too soon. The noted sage, Osho, made this observation. Premature revelation can make a person go crazy. Sometimes the light of revelation will ignite within a person, causing them to get excited and run out into the street naked with their revelation. They will run around in an undressed thought, not realizing how to process (clothe) their truth in this realm.

Awakening a mind too soon is synonymous to giving a seven-year old child a car key. This would be giving the child too much power, power that the child is incapable of handling. Power lies dormant in a person until the body grows to the dimension that can handle the power that is about to be awakened. For example, pre-marital sex among teenagers is dangerous because of the conflict that results within them as emotions and desires are being awakened before their time. The vehicle must be mature enough to handle the process of this new awakened body, for too much power can cause an implosion if the emotion, or mental body, is not mature.

Let’s take another example. In grade school, children are taught that Christopher Columbus discovered America. As they advance through school, they learn that Christopher Columbus stole America from the Indians. However, to tell a grade school child that Christopher Columbus stole America may warp his upbringing. The child will be confused as to why America celebrates a “thief,” because his consciousness has not yet evolved to the required level of maturity to handle this revelation. Thus the information would be destructive rather than instructive.

Prepare Me A Body

Man is a Spirit, that has soul, and lives in a physical body.

I recently saw a television interview that featured a gentleman who was dead for 45 minutes and was brought back to life. As a result of this experience, he learned certain vital truths that were quite startling. He said that when he was born six other bodies were born with him simultaneously.

We are, in fact, born with multiple bodies. The first and most recognized body is the physical body. The physical body is merely an earth suit formed by the Creator that enables you to function in the earth realm. It is not your true essence. You are born with a soul, which is the second body. The third body is the ghost body.

Each one of us has a ghost body. When Jesus was crucified on the cross, the Bible says that he “gave up the ghost.” (Matt. 27:50). He wasn’t giving up the Holy Ghost rather he was giving up His ghost. In graveyards, there are ghosts of deceased people hovering over their dense physical bodies, seeking to reenter the earth realm. They have not awakened to the reality of their current state. They are not aware that they are dead. For this reason, graveyards are viewed as one of the most eerie places.

However, the real you is Spirit, which is God. You are a spirit that has a soul and lives in a physical body. You also have an emotional body and an etheric body. When you were born, all of these bodies were born simultaneously with you. Each body dwells in its... respective realm, and as you grow they grow simultaneously, and as you awaken, they awaken. Why do you think the Bible says in the book of John, "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as your soul prospers?" (3 Jn. 2) The Apostle John was not talking about prospering in the physical body. He was dealing with another aspect of you—your soul that operates in another realm.

Cosmic Principle

The physical body should not perform according to every perception of the subconscious mind.

You may have met people who were placed on certain medication to sedate their mind, or perhaps they were admitted to a mental institution. Essentially, their mental function was out of sync because one of their bodies was not developing in synchronized progression with the other bodies. They were in a state of imbalance because one body may have been overdeveloped, while another body may have been underdeveloped. This is the same state that causes a genius to emerge. One body is overdeveloped while the other bodies are operating at a normal pace. An example of such an imbalance can be found in the following story.

There was a man who was a dedicated Christian. He gave out tracts, he loved the Lord, and he ministered to people. When his church became aware that something was wrong, a member of the clergy assisted him in getting to his doctor. He had been taking medication prior to coming to the church, but stopped taking it because he believed he was healed. The man’s doctor told the cleric, “We’re glad you brought him back. His family was concerned about him.” The doctor began to describe the man’s condition in lay terminology. He said, “The best way I can explain it to you is, his subconscious mind is talking louder than his conscious mind.”

When a person is asleep, the subconscious mind is activated. For example, during sleep some of you may experience the sensation of flying. This sensation arises because your subconscious mind is defying logic. Can you imagine what would happen if your flagrantly, creative subconscious mind is activated while you are awake in your conscious realm? While consciously awake, you may decide that you can fly. Your subconscious would lead you up to the roof and convince you to jump. You'll jump, and you'll die!

The physical body should not perform according to every perception of the subconscious mind. If your dense body were to perform according to every perception of the subconscious mind, you would have an unbalanced mess within the mind. Therefore, it is important to understand that we are dealing with other realms. So, if people say they are hearing voices, we cannot tell them that they are not hear anything. They are hearing something, but they may be listening in another realm. All truths must be balanced and brought into perspective. It is vitally important to be grounded in the word of God, for Truth will keep you balanced.

Personality: The Mask of Truth

“And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.” Matt 19:16-17

Cosmic Principle #8

The true “I am God” is the Spirit of God in you, which happens to manifest himself, herself, or itself as your “Self.”

One came saying, “Good Master,” or Good Teacher, “what good things shall I do, that I may have eternal life?” The man had a desire for eternal life. Yet Jesus changed the subject. He said, “Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is, God.” This man was calling Jesus’ personality “good.” Many people get so captivated by the personality of Jesus, that, in the process, they bypass the truth of Jesus. It is very important to understand this image because you can get tripped up in personality and miss God.
can become so busy handling the dense body that you can forget that Jesus wanted you to handle the Spirit.

In the Scripture, the man was so caught up in Jesus' personality that he missed the mystery. This is one of the possible dangers that may arise when you start teaching people about their divinity. When people hear "Ye are gods," they often identify the personality as saying, "I am God." The true "I am God" is the Spirit of God in you, which happens to manifest himself, herself, or itself as your "Self." All of our bodies must be in union with each other, synchronized in operation. We must drop our ego (self), and be united with the Father. Let us purpose not to allow divinity to be lost in our personality.

Some people hear one truth, latch on to it, and begin to pronounce, "I am God. I don't need to go to church. I don't need to read the Bible anymore. I am the Word." In this case, the revelation is perverted because their personality grabs it, assumes it, and the ego (self) boasts by saying, "I am God", and the true "I Am," which is Spirit, never gets to sound its voice.

Let Go And Let God

#9

Giving is the proof that you have conquered greed.

Jesus told the young ruler, "Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother, and love your neighbor as yourself." "All these I have kept," the young man said. "What do I still lack?" Jesus answered, "If you want to be perfect, go sell your possessions and give to the poor and you will have choices in heaven. Then come follow me." (Matt. 19:18-21) Jesus said, "If you want to be perfect..." — "perfect" means "to come into maturity" — "...go and sell what you have, and give it to the poor." Unload what you have. Give it away. Give it away to someone from whom you cannot get a return. Give it away to someone that cannot give you a harvest. But when the young man heard Jesus saying this, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. He did not realize that this is how you access wealth on another plane.

You cannot be a giver and be greedy at the same time. People often suspect those who operate in the law of giving of being greedy. Their level of prosperity makes them suspect. However, if you check the record of a truly prosperous person, you will discover that that person is a giver, for it is impossible to be a giver and greedy at the same time. What you are willing to walk away from determines what you can walk into. Every one of us will be tested at some level to see how greedy we really are. Will we be like the rich young ruler and walk away from divine blessing, or will we let it all go?

The Sovereign Door

Cosmic Principle

#10

God wants you to graduate from working a job to finding a vocation.

God wants you to graduate from working a job to finding a vocation. When you are in your vocation, you are in your calling (see the word “vocal” in “vocation”). Therefore, when you find your true God-ordained work, your salary will not be your prime consideration. Work is performed out of the love you have for your calling, and your salary is a fringe benefit. When you find your calling, there is no such thing as retirement. When you find your calling, you will not have to ask for a raise. You will give yourself a raise mentally, and the raise will find you. When you find your calling, and know that you are in the will of God, you will realize that if one door shuts, another door will open.

Some people may approach a door that is closing, and that closed door becomes the totality of their life. They are consumed with the thought of a closed door. God may sovereignly open a different door, but because they are so focused on the closed door, they miss an “open” opportunity.

Life is filled with “hellos” and “goodbyes,” exits and entrances. Every time someone says “Hello,” someone else is saying “Goodbye.” Wherever there is an exit, there is always an entrance. Some people fellowship around “closed” situations and “closed doors.” However, you must learn to operate in the law of release, so you can embrace new opportunities and new situations in your life. Have you ever allowed someone to live in a place, only to watch that place deteriorate? The person took the thing of value that you gave to him and reduced it to his level of consciousness. However, that is his right. In wealthy neighborhoods, the workers do not live in the main house, because the wealthy understand the danger of admitting a “poverty” consciousness into their living environment.

Consciousness is powerful. For example, during the 1970’s, the city of New York erected new housing in many communities. Brand new homes were built, equipped with air-conditioning, a working elevator, a front door with a nice lock on it, and mailboxes that were in tact. Two months later, the mailboxes were on the floor, and the front door pane was broken. They could not get the tenants to watch the lobby any longer. The light bulbs in the hallways were broken. The walls were coated with graffiti.

What happened? The community leaders thought government intervention would fix the problems in the neighborhood. They kept fighting for programs. They thought new houses would solve the problem. However, the people didn’t need new houses, they needed new minds. What the politicians thought was a good thing, was really a bad thing, for a person’s home will reflect the level of his own consciousness.

I have stopped telling people, “Use your brain.” I realize that they have been using their brain. They are using what has been put into it. Just because someone has a functioning biological brain does not mean that the mind is filled with correct information. For example, a car cannot operate using all types of petroleum, but someone once told me, “I stopped at a gas station, went to the pump, and filled the gas tank.” He then said, “I don’t understand why my car isn’t running.” I asked, “What was on the pump?” He replied, “Well, it said kerosene.” I then said “You pumped kerosene in your car? No wonder your car is not working! You have the right key. You are turning the key in the ignition. You put petroleum into the car, however, you didn’t put in the right type of petroleum to get you where you needed to go.” Isn’t that amazing? You can be set on the right road in life and still have the wrong incoming information.

When I wanted to become empowered with wealth, I had to find multimillionaires that would give me information. Someone earning $1,000 a week could not feed me information on how to become a millionaire, because that person also has wrong information. That would be a case of the blind leading the blind. Who has been pouring into your mind? Who has been feeding you? Where is your incoming information coming from? You can only go as far as the one with whom you are in relationship.
I was dealing with some young men about their behavior and goals in life, and I asked one of them, “Do you want to be like your friend?” He looked and said, “No.” I asked, “Then why are you hanging with him?” I then asked the young man that was the leader of the group, “Who is mentoring you? Who is your leader?” He brusquely replied, “I don’t follow anyone.” I said, “I am 41 years old. I have many mentors in my life. Does anyone want to follow a person that is moving on pure instinct? This is indicative of the future of your generation.” It is a frightening thought to know that one day this young man is going to ask for the hand of someone’s daughter in marriage, and then name her with his name. And, by the way, he is using his brain.

Sweeping the Mind

Cosmic Principle #11

Meditation teaches you to let go and enter.

The difficulty in entering the Kingdom of God is that you must be willing to let go of everything. That is the purpose of meditation. Some people find meditation quite frustrating. “I can’t let go. I want to see everything.” As long as you keep seeing everything, you are going to remain in this realm. Scientists refer to it as “beta consciousness.” To enter the realm of the Spirit, you must condition your mind to enter what scientists term “theta consciousness.” At this level of consciousness, you learn how to voluntarily release yourself from your tangible surroundings. As you experience that sense of release, you are told, “Go deeper and deeper.” When you go deeper and deeper, you let go of the mental baggage you are carrying.

One day, I was clearing out a room in my home, and I was amazed at how much baggage I had accumulated. I threw out boxes of junk (at least it was junk to me). You might have looked at some of it and said, “These are nuggets of wisdom,” but I needed to unload what I had been carrying. You need to have a burial service for the stuff that you have accumulated over time. Grieve the loss of it much like a mother grieves after delivering her child because she misses the feeling of carrying the child within her for nine months. New mothers have a challenge. Someone has been growing inside of them for nine months, and now it is time to accept their departure. The mother’s physical body notes the change. However, her emotions must find external expression for her sense of loss. Learn how to grieve everything that you lose, but grieve appropriately. Don’t wallow in grief, but learn to move on.

He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it. (Matt. 10:39)

This is a profound truth that is quoted six times in the gospels. If you seek to find your life, you will lose it, and if you seek to lose your life, you will find it.

Just think of all the beautiful relationships you never gained because you didn’t seek to lose your old ones. The rich young ruler sought to keep his life, which was marked with materiality, and he lost it. (Matt. 19:24)

The Master CEO

“When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, ‘Who then can be saved?’ But Jesus beheld them and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.”

You should not disciple the poor.

The disciples were desperate. They wanted to know who could be saved if rich men had a hard time entering into the kingdom of God. I am firmly convinced that all twelve disciples were rich, or they would not have asked Jesus “Who then can be saved?” Why would they ask such a question if the association with being rich was foreign to their own way of life? As we can see from this story, you should not disciple the poor.
Jesus told His disciples that He would make them “fishers of men.” If you fish for “boys,” you will catch fish that will not make a meal. If you catch a fish that is immature, that fish lacks substance to feed you, and you should throw it back into the water.

As we examine how Jesus managed His ministry, we must begin to ask ourselves, “What are we doing?” There is a major difference in our approach to management, which could explain why we are not achieving the same results, and thus not having the same impact upon our society. Jesus, the “Master CEO,” outlined his primary objective, which was to preach the gospel to the poor. He did not disciple the poor. He chose twelve men to disciple, and every one of them was rich. He even chose Judas, who was a thief, and placed him over the treasury. Only a master of infinite wealth would dare to do such a thing! Yet a treasurer is not needed unless you have an excess of funds that demands management. If Jesus came to earth today, many churches would not receive Him, because Jesus would choose radical people that would evoke criticism from the popular mindset. Jesus would surround Himself with members of the Fortune 500 Club.

Mind Over Matter

Cosmic Principle

People who generate major wealth handle very little matter.

People who generate major wealth handle very little matter. When you are rich in higher laws of thought, you understand that the thought which frames this revelation is the exact same thought that frames everything that exists, and thus you begin to comprehend Cosmic Economics. Whatever the mind values or appraises above all is its treasure and its god. Man must not appraise matter above mind, but rather learn to appraise mind above matter in order to have treasure in heaven.

When man understands and loves mind over matter, he enters the kingdom of heaven. When his emphasis and emotion are on matter over mind, he becomes frustrated. For example, a person may complain, “My boss didn’t give me a raise. Do you know all of the things I did for him?” This person is trapped in matter. He doesn’t deserve a raise. If he only appraised the machinations of his mind, he would find that he didn’t receive the raise, because he placed a greater price on matter than on mind.

The higher you go in life, the greater the mind with which you work. For example, let’s take a factory worker. People who work in factories handle matter all day. But do you think that the individual making $300,000 a year continually handles matter? No! He is working his mind. If you put the proper appraisal on your mind, you will not have to ask about your reward; it will just start coming.

“God is thought, and the Lord is the law by which thought operates.” —Rev. Ike

God does not put anyone in hell, neither does He put anyone in heaven. You put yourself in one of those realms. However, neither one of those realms is a place, it is a state of mind. If heaven and hell are places, show me where they are on the globe.

Jesus often spoke in parables to those who were without. Those who are without a higher mind cannot handle hearing truth. Someone has to tell them a story. Most of our churches are conducting storytelling hours instead of preaching the gospel, because most people cannot handle truth. Too much light too soon will blind you. Therefore, you must appraise your mind. Do you place a greater price tag on matter or on mind? What are you doing with the God-Self within you?

Jesus didn’t really come to reveal Himself. He knew who He was. He came to reveal your “Self,” to reveal who you are supposed to be as a son of God. Jesus demonstrated this principle and Paul applied it. Paul said, “I am crucified with Christ.” (Gal. 2:20) Jesus didn’t hang on the cross for Himself. He hung on the cross for my “self” to show me that my “self” needed to be crucified with His “Self.”

Paul teaches us that we are “seated in heavenly places.” (Eph. 2:6) You may be seated physically upon this earth, but heaven is your real body, the real man, or the inner man. Peter tells us, in 1 Pet. 3:4, “But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.” Everyone has a “hidden man”. Your true “man” is hidden. This explains why he prefaced this by saying, “Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel” (1 Pet. 3:3) We have lowered our appraisal of the hidden man.
We must adorn the “hidden man” so that the “hidden man’s” value becomes greater than that of the “outer man.” The “outer man” perishes daily, but the inward man is renewed.
We fast so that the hidden man of the heart can feast. We shut down the “belly god” so that the spirit can be fed.

There are some areas of want in our lives because “want” is in us. Why is “want” in us? “Want” arrives because we are not aware that the Lord (or the law) is our shepherd. The Lord is the law. When you know that the law is your shepherd, you shall not want. Whenever you find yourself wanting, it is a signal that you are out of sync with divine law, and you are not being shepherded by this principle. Therefore, put a higher price on law (on thought) than on your matter. For example, you may have some unpaid bills; they are matter. You may be worried and concerned. People ask, “What’s the matter?” When you see the word “matter,” you see “maternal” or you see “mother.” When you let matter have a greater place than law, the result is “mother” over “father.” Your life then becomes a mess when matter is superceded by “father,” who is Spirit (or thought). Matter will let you nurse it all day. Sometimes you have to just drop it. There are just certain matters that demand you leave them alone. You must go back into meditation. You must get back into divine law. You must return to Spirit and draw inward to your higher mind. Get back into the Spirit of God where your spirit can supercede matter.

Mary came to Jesus, bringing Him a matter: “There’s no more wine.” Jesus said to His mother, “Woman, My hour has not yet come.” Mary was conscious of matter. She told the servants, “Just set it up for Him. Whatever He says, do it.” (Jn. 2:1-12) Jesus moves on, ignores His mother, and does not focus on the problem. He didn’t focus on the closed door.
He didn’t start asking ten questions about what happened to the wine. He didn’t start counting the number of people that were coming. He got back into Spirit and perceived divine revelation. The servants took the water and poured it into the pots that were set up by matter. When the servants tasted the water, it turned into wine. Why? Because thought superceded matter.

Remember the boy with the fishes and loaves, and how Jesus fed the multitude? (Jn.
6:9-13) Do you want to know how it was done? The people listened to Jesus all day. They followed Him for three days, but they had not eaten. They fasted. They were feasting on the word. Simon said, “We’ve got a matter.” Jesus asked, “What’s the problem? What’s the matter?” Simon said, “The people haven’t eaten. What are we going to do?” Jesus looked around and snatched a little boy’s lunch. Can you imagine the thoughts that started coursing through the minds of the disciples? “Jesus, you are creating another problem. You took that little boy’s lunch, and that is all he had.”

When you are moving in Spirit, you will create a lot of problems in matters. Jesus, operating in Spirit, lifted up the boy’s lunch, broke it, and gave it. The supply appeared because Jesus knew how to tap into infinite substance.

Look at the beauty of what Jesus did afterwards. After he fed the multitudes, they gathered the fragments of leftovers, twelve baskets full. What do you think he did with those twelve baskets? He gave them back to the boy as a seed, so he could run home and tell his mother how harvest came to their door. When you give your lunch to God, He will give you back a harvest. Some of you are so caught up in matter that you refuse to let God “snatch your lunch.” Let God snatch your lunch!

You are going to have to allow matter to be placed on the lower level of your priorities. Know that your mindset frames your life. Your mindset determines which picture will be placed the frame of your life. Operate in the higher mind and the higher law, which is God.

AFFIRMATION

I strip from my mind all appraisal of matter above thought. As a man thinks, so is he. I love and value this Lord, this law, above all. This knowledge gives me treasure in heaven and entrance into the kingdom of heaven. I strip my mind bare of any beliefs in matter above mind. In Jesus’ Name.

1 These truths are yet evolving and are currently being researched for later publication by Bishop E. Bernard Jordan.
CHAPTER 3:
KNOWING THE TRUTH

#15

The truth that I know is the truth that frees me.

Free Your Mind

The Bible says, “Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” (Jn. 8:32)

You are made according to the truth that you know. If there were a bird in a cage, and you lifted the cage door to set it free, the bird may still remain in the cage. Although you physically set it free, the bird may still remain in the cage because it is still “caged” in its mind. However, when you come into truth, when that door opens and truth comes, the truth will reach in, get the bird that is imprisoned in the cage of its mind, and throw it out into the earth. Truth sets the mind free.

Many people have been set free, but they have not yet been made free. Why do many criminals who have been released from prison go right back? They were set free, but they were never made free. The world is always making the objective man free, but unless the subconscious man is made free, they are going to end up committing the same crimes.

The Bible says, “He whom the Son has made free is free indeed.” (Jn. 8:36) You have to believe that you are free within yourself. You must not conform to other people’s opinions. So, what does that mean? That means their opinions cannot affect you, unless it is an opinion with which you are in agreement. The mind is very powerful. Therefore, you must learn how to seal your spirit by proclaiming and affirming certain things about yourself which you know are true. So, for example, if the doctor says you only have six months to live, you must have the truth already built up in you. Your foundational truth upon which you will stand must be your inner belief. “I shall not die but live, and declare the glorious works of the Lord.” (Ps. 118:17) The disease is not the truth of you. You have to keep building yourself up in your most holy faith. If your faith is built up, and that consciousness cannot be found in you, then you would not die. You must be able to sustain the truth that you believe about yourself and make it a part of your belief system.

Seedtime and Harvest

You have the ability, through seedtime and harvest, to determine what kind of harvest you will enjoy.

Every bird’s nest is at the same level. They are all living on one plane. However, you can determine either to live in a cardboard box or a 20-bedroom mansion; you can take your pick of anything in between. According to your faith it will be done.

“Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?” (Matt. 6:27) Do you want to know why the grass of the field is clothed the way it is? It is because they have no problem letting go of what they have. As long as there is clutter in your life, you are stopping the forces of prosperity.

“Therefore take no thought, saying, “What shall we eat?” or, “What shall we drink?” or, “Wherewithal shall we be clothed?” (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.” (Matt. 6:31) Your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. The Father knows you need everything that the Gentiles seek. The Father knows that you need every mansion that the "Gentiles" seek. The Father knows that you need every jet plane that the "Gentiles" seek. The Father knows that you need every billion-dollar deal and every corporate takeover that the "Gentiles" are seek. The problem is, you don’t know that you need it. You thought it was only for the Gentiles. The Father knows it, but you are afraid to imagine it. You have not used your imagination, and therefore you have lacked the creation of all of those things that the "Gentiles" seek.

Some people say it is wrong to seek those things the Gentiles seek, but that is not what the Father said. What the Father said was, “All these things the Gentiles seek, I know you need.” Religiosity says to stay away from “these things” because they are evil. Why does the Father know that you need them? Because the Father has made a covenant with you that He will give you the desires of your heart (Ps. 37:4), and as long as it is a desire, and you are a believer, He must give it to you. The problem is that it has not been a desire of yours. It has only been a wish because you have been afraid to desire it.

The Kingdom of God

“But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” (Matt. 6:33)

"Seek ye first the kingdom," seek ye first that realm that rules over all material things.

#17

Go within or do without.

Where is the kingdom? The kingdom is within you, which is the realm that rules over all material things. Could it be that the only reason you are doing without is because you are too lazy to go within? That is what prayer is. Prayer is going within, not going out into the clouds. What do you think Jesus was really talking about when He said, “When you pray, enter into your secret closet?” (Matt. 6:6) Some people have been going into a closet inside of their bedroom. They say “I’m going to my prayer closet.” That is not the closet that the Father was talking about. You have missed God altogether because you have had God on the outside instead of on the inside.

So when the Bible says, go into your prayer closet and enter in, that means, the prayer closet is a secret place where you go within yourself, which is where the kingdom of God resides. However, most people never find the kingdom, because they are searching all over the world looking for the kingdom. The kingdom of God is within you.

God is our example. He made man in His image and in His likeness. Whenever God wants to get something done, where does He go? God goes within Himself. If God goes within Himself to create out of Himself, where do you think He expects you to go? People are busy searching for a God that is “somewhere over the rainbow.” Then when they get on the other side of the rainbow and find themselves in a nightmare, they are “off to see the wizard.”

However, it is time to go within! We must get back into meditation. Because of the way we have been taught to pray, many people think prayer is always speaking. However, prayer has very little to do with speaking. Prayer is really listening. God said, ”man ought to always pray and not faint.” (Lk. 18:1) Prayer is not a position as much as it is a state of consciousness.

Teach Me To Pray

#18

Pray from the end because the end wills the means.
Knowing The Truth

Many people go to God praying prayers like, “Father God, please give me food. I am an empty pitcher before a full fountain. Look down on your starving children today.” But this is a damaging prayer. Instead, I would lift up whatever little food I had, or if I had no food I would say, “Father, I thank you for the food you have given me.” Prayer is supposed to be prayed from the end, because it wills the means. In Jesus’ words, “believe that ye have received it and ye shall have it.” (Mk. 11:24) The subconscious mind does not know the difference between truth and falsity. The subconscious mind hears, “He has been given food.” So, the universe begins to give more food.

Every day I say, “Father, I thank you for the millions you have given me. I thank you for the infinite money you have given me.” If my children were not spiritual, they would look at me and ask, “What millions does daddy have? We haven’t seen it on this side.” However, I believe that I have received it. I do not believe God has held anything back from me. I believe he blesses me and gives unto me according to all life and godliness, and that He blesses me with all spiritual blessings in high places. I discovered where the blessings are. The blessings are asleep in my subjective mind waiting for me to awaken them. Just my desire is the proof that they exist for me.

The “Maker” In Me

Imagination is creation. It starts the growth of all forms, and then faith gives substance to the form (my belief). You have to start imagining those things, those thoughts, because thoughts become things, and “faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” (Heb. 11:1). However, because it is not seen in the natural, does not mean that it does not exist.

You have a treasure in your “earthen vessel,” but you may not have unlocked your treasure. You have been walking around with “Aladdin’s Lamp,” but you have been afraid to rub it. God in you is saying, “Your wish is my command.” The Scripture says in Isaiah 45:11, “Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me.”

“Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One Of Israel, and his Maker…” You are the maker of the Lord. God said “let us make man in our image and after our likeness.” Whatsoever a man or a mind sows, that is what he must also reap. (Gal. 6:7) God bound himself by his own law. So, then man made God in his own image and after his likeness.

All of those that came to Jesus with a problem whoever received anything, Jesus said to them, “According to your faith, you made this happen.” He said, “I myself can do nothing.” One person said, “Jesus healed me.” And Jesus replied, “No, thy faith has made thee whole.” Remember the woman who touched the hem of Jesus’ garment? There was no power in the garment. It was her faith that made her whole. "But she said within herself, if I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole." (Matt. 9:21) She placed her faith in the garment, and that is where the transaction took place.

Jesus said, "Command ye me," and you say, "I have not received certain things by the hand of the Lord." You do not have it because you never commanded it. Some of you are just learning where God dwells, so you are asking in the wrong direction. Until you realize that you are a “maker” you will never be a creator. If God himself is a creator, then he himself must make other creators, because he made all things after his likeness and after his kind.

What you magnify gets magnified.

Some people believe that they have to work hard to have money. They go to work everyday, work hard, and discover that they are not getting rich. Although that is what they have been told, and that is what they believe, it is not happening for them. You have to change the process. The people that I know that have a lot of money are not working hard at all. As a matter of fact, they are hardly working.

It is important to understand that in order to come into the wish fulfilled, you must pray from the end, and not from the beginning. Do not pray from your problem because that will magnify your problem. What you magnify gets magnified. Whatever you talk up, you are going to talk down. If you talk about the bad things that happen, or you talk about the loss of your job, you will talk down more losses. The Bible tells us, “Thou art snared by the words of your mouth.” (Prov. 6:2) Nobody can do anything to you. God gave you your subconscious mind. It was not given to you by the devil. God gave it to you as a tool so that you can awaken the kingdom of God within you.
Fringe Benefits

#20

"Seek ye first the kingdom." Seek ye first the laws that govern the realm in which He rules. There are many people that sought God, and there are many people that have God but do not have the kingdom. For example, there are many people that have been in church for 40 years serving God, loving God, but they have missed the kingdom. How many people do you know that love God, but are living way beneath the privileges that God has given them? Many people get introduced to the person, but they never get introduced to the kingdom. They met the King, (His person), but missed His kingdom (His principles). His principles are the kingdom. The kingdom is the law that governs, and produces the cause and the effects.

Now let’s find out what happens when you seek the kingdom of God, not when you seek God. "And all these things shall be added unto you." (Matt. 6:33) Why would all these things be added unto you? Because you are seeking the kingdom of God. If you put the same energy into seeking the kingdom as you would put into seeking the King, and if you put the same kind of energy into seeking the principles as you put into seeking the person, you would have a greater revelation than “God is good.” You would have had a stronger revelation than “He is a keeper.” You would understand that the presence of God within you is your ability to create everything that you so desire. You would understand that your mind determines your zip code. You would understand that all the things that the Gentiles seek, your Father that is within you knows that you have need of them.

This is how you can tell you are in the wrong place. Anytime you hear people say, “It’s not all about the money,” then pick up your stuff and run! Number one, they don’t know what money is. Number two, the Bible says that money answers all things. (Ecc. 10:19) However, you must first understand money at its proper level. God wants to show us that we can get to a place in Him where we can, “come buy without money.” God wants you to learn how to buy from consciousness.

20/20 Vision

“My people perish for a lack of knowledge, and without a vision, my people die.” (Hos. 4:6; Prov. 29:18)

As long as you live within the realm that you can see, you will not go within yourself to find out what it is that you are supposed to be creating. Some people have 20/20 vision, but they cannot see the future. They cannot even see an idea whose time has come. For example, instead of working on your job for eight hours a day, you could be one of your employers’ vendors, servicing them one hour a week, and accomplishing the same objectives, because you have a team that you can readily deploy to get the job done. Then you can begin to sell your service to other corporations and secure them as your clients.

However, if you do not get a vision greater than the vision you have, then you are going to sit and wait for the retirement dinner, and you’ll receive a little card and some flowers, and people will tell you how much they love you. If you have no life beyond that, if you have no vision, you will go home and die.

When there is a lack of provision, check your vision.

Out of the word “provision,” you see “vision.” The Father only sees in a secret place. That is why He lets us know that it is not by works that we are saved. He cannot see your works. He can only see what is in secret. “...thy Father which sees in secret shall reward thee openly.” (Matt. 6:6) If you want the open reward, go into the prayer closet and start your secret action. He sees what goes on in secret. What you are envisioning on the inside of your heart is manifested in your life because the Father is always seeing your situation. He is answering every one of your secret prayers. He is answering your consciousness, which is constantly grinding on the inside of you.

Unless you are conscious of being that which you seek, you will not find it. God will not make you a millionaire if you are only conscious of being a person that makes $1,000 a year. It is like the person who carved Moses and the Ten Commandments, and David. One man saw the stone and asked, "How much is that?" Another man, who possessed the stone but thought it had little value, said, "Well, you can have it. It's just sitting there." While one person saw the stone as nothing, another heard Moses calling out to him from the rock. He saw him trapped within the stone. That is the power of a visionary. He saw an image trapped within the marble. People will pay you if you can capture destiny or reach in and carve out the excess. That is the skill of the artist. That is super-vision. That takes greatness, to be able to see ability and it carve out. You are currently in a mass of something that you must carve yourself out of, so that you can enter into your true potential.

The God-Spell

Cosmic Principle #22

The world is either casting a spell on you, or you are casting a spell on the world.

You are under a spell. The Gospel is the God-spell, which is the good spell. Every mind is either catching a spell or casting a spell? What spells have you been catching lately? If you're not catching the Gospel, you are catching the world's spell.

Prayer is a spell. We just dress it up and call it prayer, but it's really a spell. That is why I don't have just anyone praying for me. I know some of you give that power to a lot of people, but I don't. You cannot have anyone pray for you that has a lesser consciousness than your own. For example, how are you going to have somebody praying that you can pay your mortgage when they are sitting in an apartment? How can you sit under someone that has less than you? That means you have to lose what you have and move down to the level of their consciousness.

AFFIRMATION

I enjoy the very thought, the very idea and the very feeling of success and prosperity. I enjoy seeing and hearing about the success and prosperity of others. I love and bless success and prosperity in all who are enjoying success and prosperity. My love and enjoyment of success and prosperity is a power that draws more and more success and prosperity unto me, and all the good that I desire. In God, I am success. In God, I am prosperity. I love it. I enjoy success and prosperity. Thank you, Father. Thank you, God in me.

Yes, I enjoy money. I enjoy the convenience of money. I enjoy all the good that I can do with money. I enjoy the ease of money. I enjoy the very joy of money. I enjoy using money for my good purposes of enjoyment. I enjoy using money to pay my bills and meet my needs. I enjoy giving money to good causes that I believe in. I enjoy money as it comes in and goes forth where I send it. I enjoy the never-ending circulation and multiplication of money in my life. My enjoyment, right use, right giving of money keeps money circulating and multiplying in my life. Thank you, God in me, for the righteousness and the joy of money that is multiplying in me daily. I strip from my mind all appraisal of matter above thought. As a man thinks, so is he. Therefore I think right thoughts concerning money. I think right thoughts concerning who I am. I love and value this Lord, this law, above all. This knowledge gives me treasure in heaven and entrance into the kingdom of heaven. I strip my mind bare of any belief in matter above mind. Thank you, God in me. I enjoy the very thought, the very idea, the very feeling of success and prosperity.

In God I am success. I am prosperity, for I see myself as God sees me. He sees me as prosperous, moving with abundance, working with abundance, having all the money I need to meet my needs, money to enjoy, money to pay my bills, money that is circulating. I enjoy the never-ending circulation and multiplication of money in my life. Thank you, God in me, for prosperity and for the truth of me, which is God. In Jesus’ Name.
CHAPTER 4:
THE PEARL OF GREAT PRICE

"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it." (Matt. 13:45-46)

Buying and Selling

If you think the right thoughts, you will produce the right things.

The kingdom of heaven is the mind and its thinking process. It is the principles of how the kingdom is run. It is a philosophy, a way of thought. Many people have wrong thoughts, which result in wrong actions. They think the wrong thoughts, and, as a result, they produce the wrong things. This is an important principle of the kingdom. If you put the wrong thoughts in, you will get the wrong things out. If you put the right thoughts in, you will get the right things out. How can we move down the road of success? How can we start to expand our imagination? How can we begin to broaden our thinking? How can we begin to expand our horizons? How can we change where we are living? How can we change our outward experience?
Cosmic Economics

The way you change the outside (your surroundings) is by going on the inside (within yourself). Change will not come by going to a god “somewhere over the rainbow,” like Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz. However, you must change your belief system, because your thoughts are by what you believe. Until you change what is on the inside of you, you are obligated to live with what is on the outside. Your “things” will not manifest until you can trick your mind into believing that they belong to you. You can become a millionaire in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye. The moment you can get your mind’s eye to twinkle, you will change, for that is the moment that the eyes of your understanding are enlightened. You awaken to your potential. You can finally SEE!

The parable of Jesus talks about the “pearl of great price.” Every mind is a “merchantman” in the marketplace of life. Every mind is continually transacting business. We transact business based on our thoughts, or our level of consciousness, because our thoughts are things. People are continually buying and selling their belief system. In fact, you are buying your own belief system. When you understand your thoughts, you will also understand the kind of business you are transacting. If you want a successful business, you must have successful thoughts. Thoughts of failure will result in a failed business. Therefore, it is paramount that you change your belief system, so that you can create the proper structure and environment on the outside of you.

The merchant mind is continually transacting business, buying and selling what it believes. For example, if you were a furniture salesman, are you buying and selling furniture? No. You are buying and selling your beliefs. Furniture is only the output of what you believe. Likewise, real estate brokers are buying and selling their beliefs. Property or real estate is only an extension of their belief system. For example, Donald Trump would be successful in any business that he became involved in. He entered the casino business, and he was successful there. He entered the real estate market, and he was successful there. In every area of business that he embarks upon he is buying and selling his what he believes. Everyone is buying and selling their beliefs. The actual product does not matter. If you don’t believe in the produce, then it will not sell. People made millions of dollars selling “Pet Rocks.” Was it the rock that sold itself? No. What sold was the seller’s belief in the product. Once you become cognizant of your own beliefs, you will know what you are selling to yourself, and you will also know what you are buying, for we buy and sell whatever the mind believes.

So, the question is, what are you buying? Every time you talk to someone you are buying and selling, because the kingdom of heaven is like a merchantman, or a “merchant mind.” A mind is a man. When God said, “Let us make man in our own image,” he was saying, “Let us make “mind” in our own image, after our likeness.” When God was ready to make man, He could only make man out of Himself because He was the only Self that was available - and man (or mind) was created.

Some people will never enter into the blessings God ordained for them because of their belief system, the belief system that they purchased in the marketplace. Whenever you are engaged in a conversation, you are buying and selling. Whenever you believe an idea, you buy it with energy. Everything that God created is in the form of energy. Energy is in either one or two states: materialized or dematerialized. When you believe for something, your faith is in operation, for faith is the substance of things hoped for, and the evidence of things not seen. (Heb. 11:1) Faith is the substance of “things.” Faith gives substance to the “things” that you are hoping for, those “things” that are in your dreams. Faith makes your dream a reality. Therefore, energy is money. You buy things with the energy, or the money, of your mind. In order for you to buy anything, you have to burn energy. The bills in your pocket are not money, but they are the effects of money. Some things that you need may yet be in their dematerialized state. However, because they have not yet manifested, does not mean that they do not exist. Desire is the proof that they exist. Thought are things. If you can think it, you can create it. God wants you learn to operate with your mind.

Exchange Rate

Cosmic Principle

I am the coin in every realm.

Many people are comfortable operating at a level where they are chasing material money. However, money is not a material matter, it is something far greater. Money is spiritual. Money is within you. The reason why people are chasing material money is because they are not spiritual. You must begin to understand the vital principle of the kingdom, which is, “I am money,” so that you can begin to operate in the correct belief system that “you are the coin in every realm.” There is no realm that exists in life where you do not have the power of exchange. Once you understand this mystery, this vital principle of the kingdom, you will begin to access money on all levels: emotional, psychological, and then finally, the lowest level, which is material. You will automatically know what to do if you were to ever travel to another country and someone told you that your money had no value outside of your nation. Can you imagine this scenario? What you thought was substantial money turns into “Monopoly” money.

In some nations, certain currency cannot trade in the bank because it is not respected. You may have exchanged thousands of American dollars in that country and left with a suitcase of their money, only to attempt to exchange it when you return, where it is declared by the banks as worthless. Now, you are stuck with some paper money that you and your children can play with until you go back to that nation, because you are now in a nation that did not respect that foreign coin.

However, the belief system, “I am money,” will be the coin in their realm. “I Am” will be the means of exchange, because money is not the paper, it is spiritual. The same consciousness that created that money can create a suitcase of your own money. You are the coin of every realm, whether material, soulish, spiritual, euphoric, or cosmic. You must harbor the belief system that says, “There is no a realm that exists that I can’t do business in. I possess within me the highest coin, which is a master key, a master coin, and that coin is “I Am.” I am money.” Money is the only substance that Jesus placed on the same level as God. Jesus said, “Serve God or mammon.” (Matt. 6:24) Money should be understood for the power it exerts. We are called to multiply the substance which God places in our hands. However, money must never supplant God as our Lord and Savior. Our dependency must always rest upon Him.

Knowledge Is Power

Wealth is a reward for wisdom in action.
Wealth grows where people exert energy. If energy is not exerted, money cannot grow. It will stagnate. It will rot and diminish before your eyes. The multiplication of money requires the energy of thought and labor. Wealth is a reward for wisdom in action. When you believe an idea, you buy it with the energy of your mind, or with the money of your mind (consciousness). Therefore, you must be sure that it is a profitable idea, for profitable ideas are the only ideas that are worth purchasing. You must also examine every idea by asking what the idea is going to cost you. Finally, you need to know what the idea will pay you, and make sure it is only "goodly pearls."

Every time someone comes to me with an idea, I ask a major question in the back of my mind, "How does this pay me?" The person with the idea has already told me how it helps them, but I need to know how it helps me. They have to sell me on the idea of "what is in it for me?" If there is nothing in it for me, I am not interested in buying it. They may say, "But can’t you help us out? It is for a noble cause, homeless children and their mothers?" My response would be, "I am not interested. You have not sold me. What is in it for me? Candy? No, I am on a diet, so I am not interested." Buying and selling is supposed to be profitable for you.

Many of us have put our money into things that were not profitable, because our minds were not profitable. Many people put their money into depreciating items. For example, you should not go out and start buying expensive suits just because you see other people buying expensive suits. The expensive suits that they are purchasing benefit them because they may be going into areas that demand a certain kind of presence and attention that will ultimately generate wealth for them. However, your work may not require a two-piece or a three-piece suit. Your work may require overalls because you are doing some kind of plant work, or perhaps you are doing construction work. So don’t go out buying expensive suits if you are not operating in that realm because that is not going to generate wealth for you. Make sure that whatever you buy and sell are "goodly pearls," for consciousness is the only currency, and currency is only consciousness.

The only merchandise you have to sell in the marketplace of life is yourself, your own self-consciousness, what you believe about yourself. Some people may look at you and ask, "Why are you living like that? You look like you can hardly pay your bills. Why don’t you get a lesser vehicle?" Tell them, "I don’t want a lesser vehicle because that is not my self-consciousness." Someone else may say, "You can live better if you just got a smaller house. There are houses you can buy down the block for $190,000." However, is that your self-consciousness? We buy and sell our self-consciousness. Your value in the marketplace of life is determined by your own self-image. Therefore, believe in yourself correctly and others will believe in you.

In the business of life, you must always be seeking the "pearl of great price." There is one thing that is worth everything, and that is the knowledge of this “pearl.” If you really believe that this “pearl” is the answer, then you will be able to give up all that you have. But if you do not believe that this “pearl” is the answer, then you will hold on to some of what you have. Are you ready for this “pearl,” the pearl of great price? This “pearl” is so heavy, I am not sure you are going to be able to wear it around your neck. Most churches cannot even share this “pearl.” They have to have bodyguards around this “pearl.” Angels have to be dispatched to protect this “pearl” of great price.

The merchantman found one pearl, and sold all that he had. You cannot discuss this “pearl” with anyone else. Ever since I came into the revelation of what this “pearl” is, I have been working with this “pearl,” and this “pearl” has been working with me.

The merchantman stopped running after many goodly pearls and went after one pearl of great price. When you get the mother pearl, she will make all the others. You will have as many babies as you want. What would make a person sell all that they had and buy this one pearl? The merchantman sold everything that he had, his house, his means of transportation, because he found a pearl of a greater price. Are you ready for the “pearl”? This is the pearl that many people cannot handle. The pearl is “I am God and beside me there is no other.” (Isa. 43:11) “Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.” (Ps. 82:6)

Once you have that pearl, you can sell everything you have, because you are God. You can create as much as you desire to have. “I am God and beside me there is no other,” is the “pearl” that when it is found, you will have no problem giving to someone else. Now, you have the faith to make another, the faith that says, “I am God and beside me there no other.” Jesus said, “The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hid in the field; the which when the man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.” (Matt. 13:44) I am convinced that Jesus’ disciples did not know what he was saying when he said, “buy the whole field,” for when you find the treasure, the awareness of “I am God,” you can buy the whole world. I Am” is the awareness of being what you want to be, and it is the only way to be what you want to be. When you discover the pearl of great price, you sell all other beliefs and invest all of your energy, or the money of your mind, in it.

The Bible says, “Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.” (Matt. 7:6) In order for this “pearl” to work for you, you must invest your whole mind into a daily meditation and affirmation that “I am God and beside me there is no other.” Otherwise, you will take it like swine, mistaking the “pearl” for a “rock,” and kick it around saying, “I am God” with no manifestation. People will look at you and say, “What did you say?” But God doesn’t hang a sign around His neck saying “I am God.” He just “is” God, by “being” God. In the same way, God in you doesn’t hang a sign around your neck saying, “I am God.” He just “is” God in you by “being” God.

in you.

"I am God," that is the pearl, that is the treasure. When you have that treasure, your material things can be taken from you, but you will have the ability to recreate them. Why? Because "I am God." Once you become aware of, "I am God, and operate in this awareness of being, you will realize that this is the only way to "be" what you want to "be." When you discover the pearl of great price, you will sell all of your beliefs in other powers, causes, and sources, and buy this one God, one Power, one Cause, the Source of all Good.

AFFIRMATION

I unlock this treasure which is within my field. I pray that the principle of God, the kingdom of God within me, is causing new realities to flow out of me. I decree that right here and right now, I activate this pearl of great price. I do not take it lightly, but I treasure it, I keep it, and I have it. I raise my energy, the energy of my mind, into keeping it, guarding it, and protecting it so that it can maintain its value, and I will always have use of it. "I am God“ is that precious pearl, the pearl of great price. I am God, and beside me, there is no other. This is a valuable pearl that is in my being.

The more attention I give to it, the more it grows in me. The more I magnify it, the more magnified it becomes in me. I am God, and beside me there is no other. Thank you, God in me, for this revelation. With this revelation, I will be the coin of every realm. I will be the master of money. I will be the coin of every realm that exists because I am God, and beside me, there is no other. Thank you, God in me, for being God in me, for being God as me, and for being God through me. I am God, and beside me, there is no other. In Jesus’ Name.

Extra! Extra!

With that in mind, from now throughout eternity this is the only merchandise that you will buy and sell. It will prosper you, and all who buy it will be blessed infinitely and eternally. You can negotiate every transaction with that “pearl.” You shall decree a thing and it shall be established. Where the word of a king is, there is power. When you understand “I am God and beside me there is no other,” you realize that you are the coin that transacts business in every realm. Meditate on that - “I am the coin of every realm.” There isn’t a realm in which you cannot be a merchant. There is no other power outside of you that controls you. That is a valuable pearl!

I don’t care what your physical situation may look like, because that “pearl” is the truth of you! The various situations that surround you do not matter. You are still the coin of every realm. You can go to another country and they may say, “We don’t take American Express and we don’t recognize American money.” You can confidently reply, “That’s all right, money will manifest, because I am God. I am still the coin of your realm.” People may you, “How in the world did you get that house?” Just tell them, “I had something wired from the kingdom. I have a currency that your kingdom must respect.” Every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that Jesus is Lord. I am God.

You may be running into some interference, but the interference is running in you. A man’s enemies are of his own house. Your only enemy is you. Your mind lives in your house. Some of you have a thief that is getting ready to steal your pearl, because a man’s enemies are of his own house. Don’t look at your brothers and sisters, and don’t look at your mother and your father. No. That is not what we are talking about. The enemy in your house is your own mind that will deny “I am God.” Nothing outside of you has power over you unless you give it power over you. The only way you can give it power is to give your mind attention to it. Take your power back! I am God and beside me there is no other!
CHAPTER 5: BEYOND MATERIALITY

“For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.” (Matt. 6:21)

The Right Thought

“Casting down all imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.” (2 Cor. 10:5)

#26

The kingdom of heaven represents a higher law of thought that rules all material things.

What are you thinking? What is on your mind? Your thoughts are things. They are tangible. All things that exist began in the realm of thought and imagination. You must be careful what you think about because your thoughts break into action, and one day will come to manifestation. In other words, we, in this three dimensional world, can see, touch, and feel the objects that surround us, but there was a time when the objects around us did not exist. At some point someone entered the realm of thought and saw the image which had to be brought into this realm of existence. Some of your thoughts have been sitting in the dark recesses of your mind being developed and are now ready to express themselves. They are maturing right now.

God fills you with ideas. Everything that should manifest in your life will start with a dot in the dimension of the Spirit. In this dimension, that which is immeasurable in time and space is brought into a dimension that can be measured. Thoughts are so powerful that if you put two lines on a piece of paper, you create space. However, that space could not be created until you set the frame of the two lines. In the same way, your thoughts set frames in the Spirit, and once it sets a frame, all you have to do is place your picture between the lines.

Every thought is an angel and has its own message. Have you been harboring fallen angels or God angels? Are you carrying messengers of God or messengers of Satan? Any thought that is not a thought of God, or that which exalts itself against the knowledge of God, is a fallen angel. The Bible says, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." (John 1:1) What is this Scripture saying? You are a word (a thought) that has been sent from God. Satan was a thought that fell from God (fell from grace). We are all messengers of God, or a "word from God," and it is our responsibility to find the other words that we are supposed to connect with to make up the sentence of God. If you connect with the wrong word, you will make up a wrong sentence, and instead of a sentence that is producing life, you will become part of a sentence that produces death, because you have connected with the wrong words.

Therefore, you must put a higher value on thought versus things. Right now, you have a bill that needs to be paid. Right now, there is something you need to manifest. You have to either believe in the materiality or believe in the Word. The Word is what creates the thing. You must proclaim, "I Am" that. Jesus said, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, before Abraham was, I Am." (Jn. 8:58) Before there was an Abraham, there was I AM. Before there was anything, there was I AM. Once you can understand this, you will be able to, as Isaiah said, "come buy without money." If you grab this in consciousness you will experience it in material. This is the consciousness that you must meditate upon day and night.
Beyond Materiality

The law of consciousness is the only law of expression.

What are you conscious of being and possessing? What are you mimicking? What are you saying consciously within yourself, 24 hours a day, seven days a week? Are you saying you are victorious or are you saying you are a second-class citizen? Are you saying, "I am the head," or are you identifying yourself as the tail? When you understand being the head and not the tail you will start moving in a realm of consciousness that puts you in front every time.

The reason many people are living in the state that they are in, living as the tail and not the head, is because they believe there is a God outside of themselves doing things to them. However, they are doing it to themselves. You become that state in expression the moment you begin to become conscious of being. The Bible says, "Ye shall decree a thing and it shall come to pass." (Job 22:28) When you keep saying something over and over, eventually the conscious mind will assume that to the point where the subconscious begins to accept it as truth. You have said it so many times during the day that when you fall asleep at night your subconscious mind will say the same thing, and eventually you will start to come into the consciousness of being your confession. You will begin to do mental housecleaning, sweeping out the negativity, thus bringing forth the prosperity that is dwelling on the inside of you. That is "working out your salvation."

Therefore, become conscious of having that which you sense you are supposed to have. If you get it into your consciousness, it will map itself out into your expression. If you are too wrapped up in the appraisal of materiality, then the review will come back unrewarding because you have not rewarded yourself or given yourself a true appraisal. Why should you get a right appraisal when you haven’t set the right appraisal in your own personal life? It is difficult for the universe to reward you when you haven’t rewarded yourself. As long as you appraise matter higher than yourself, disappointment will continuously visit you. The only time you are supposed to rejoice is when you work and do mental housecleaning, and appraise thought higher than materiality.
However, let me give you a warning. There are going to be enemies that show up in your life that want to rob you of the consciousness of being. The enemy will show up in your life and say “You have no business dreaming that.” When this happens, this will be a sign to you to work on the “income.” However, don’t work on the income by going out and getting three jobs. Work on the income by dealing with the incoming information in your consciousness. Understanding this principle, the consciousness of being, is vital because until you “be” you are going to miss what has been divinely ordained for you to have on this plane. It must be indelibly imprinted in your consciousness. For example, everyday I proclaim, “I am rich. I am prosperous. I am wealthy.” I will continuously proclaim it until that which I am conscious of being is perfectly expressed, for true wealth is when I am able to finance my imagination. I have some things in my imagination that I must be able to finance, so I must keep saying it and being it in consciousness, I must keep repeating it, and making affirmations of it, until “it” is perfectly expressed.

Meditation means to murmur, to mutter to oneself. Whatever you are murmuring to yourself, muttering to yourself, saying to yourself in quiet will determine what you will come into. During your time of meditation, that hour that you would have taken for lunch, or before you get out of bed, just sit there and become conscious of being what you want to come into.

“Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.” (Prov. 18:21). Whatever we are meditating upon in our heart will run parallel to our life. Ninety-nine percent of the problem occurs in the mind. If your head is straight, your feet will be in alignment. When you are poor, you don’t have any power. If you do not have money, you do not have power. As long as you are consuming, you are only good for burning in the fire. You must become a producer, a creator, an energizer, empowered. You must change the aura in you before you can change the aura around you. Until you change what is in you, you cannot change what is outside of you. The change must first occur within.

The Father said, let there be light, and there was light. (Gen. 1:3) He said, light “be,” and light was. Then God began to say, “let us make man in our image and after our likeness,” which shows us that if God made man in His image and after His likeness, you make everything in your image, and in your imagination, and after your liking, for imagination is creation.

So as we begin to look at these points we begin to see some very valuable truths. “Then Jesus said unto his disciples, ‘Verily, I say unto you, that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.’” We see here that the “rich man” represents a mind whose trust is in matter rather that in the higher law of thought, the higher law of God’s word. The “kingdom of heaven” is the higher rulership, the understanding that there is a higher law of thought that rules all material things.
Worry is a form of meditation. If God has given you the mind to be the creator of what you want, then worry should not be a part of your thought process. "Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?" (Matt. 6:25) In other words, stop worrying. Jesus is telling you to stop worrying. Take no thought for it. Don't even take any thought for your life. Jesus goes on to say, "Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?" (Matt 6:26) Now, here are the fowl of the air that don't sow seeds, yet harvest comes to them. Evidently, the Father has a covenant with the fowl of the air. Are not you much better than the fowl of the air?
You’re Bigger Than That

“Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee…” (Jer. 1:5)

Your imagination is the place where your plans and ideas evolve.

Your original state was without form. You are larger than your body. God knew you before you came out of your mother’s womb. Your true state is without form. Therefore, you must be born twice. You were born in this world, but then you must be born again. You were already set apart for a purpose before you were formed. When you came out of your mother’s womb everything you needed came with you. Your desire did not develop after you were born. You were born with the desire already in you. It is part of your make-up. However, you have to stir up the gift that is already in you. “Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God…” (2 Tim. 1:6) Whatever we are we out-picture it.

There is a place that you can move in God where it is hard for the human eye to distinguish whether you are in the body or out of the body. We should be used to going in and out of the dimensions of His presence. When you understand your full purpose, you realize that you have to become the “mother of God.” The son will only be begotten. You have the capacity to be all that you want to be by simply imagining, by going in and out of the various dimensions of His presence obtaining the thoughts, the ideas, and the plans that you need, for your imagination is the place where your plans and ideas evolve. However, in order to really tap into this principle you must realize that you are larger than your body. You are Spirit, made in the image and likeness of God, for “greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.” (1 Jn. 4:4) Therefore, it is not robbery to be equal with God, because you were made in His image and in His likeness. “Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God;” (Phil. 2:6) You are an immortal being who was known by God before you came to this realm called earth. Jesus came to the earth remembering who He was, but you came to the earth forgetting who you are. The same power that raised Christ from the dead delves within you. The same power of creation will bring your ideas and plans to life.

Check Your Bags

Cosmic Principle #30

Whatever your mind values is your treasure.

Whatever your mind values is your treasure. Your heart will always be found around your treasure. "Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (Matt. 5:3) "Blessed are the poor in spirit," blessed is the man that has stripped his mind of worldly values. How do you strip your mind of worldly values? By appraising spirituality above materiality, and realizing, “I am spirituality.” If you need something in the natural realm, all you have to do is proclaim, “I am that” in the spiritual realm. This does not mean that you do not already possess it. However, it does mean that you will not have to overwork yourself to get it. You get what you need through thought versus work, and then God gives you the corresponding action to make the transaction happen.

A mind stripped bare of all beliefs in the power of causation of materiality and externality is truly poor in spirit, and theirs is the kingdom of heaven. So, why is the mind, or the man, that is stripped bare of all beliefs in the power of causation of materiality and externality truly poor? Because he has unloaded all of his material beliefs. So blessed are the poor in spirit. Blessed are you who begin to let go of excess baggage. You have to give up and sell all of your false material values, and come into the true possession, which is the kingdom. That means a man stripping himself of the false values and appraisals of materiality and tradition is the blessed man. This is the poor rich man, the man poor in spirit. Now, he has the kingdom of heaven.

"Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me." (Matt. 19:21) What is God asking the rich young ruler to do? He is asking him to give up and sell all false material value, and come into possession of the kingdom. Likewise, God is telling us to sell all of our false material values, the things that we appraised as such valuable pieces, but in reality are nothing but false images, mirages and false beliefs. God is saying, sell them and give them to the poor so that they can enjoy that illusion, because you will be able to pick up a greater thing. God wants to bring you into a higher level of thought. He wants to bring you to a new place in space, a new place in consciousness.

“But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. Then Jesus came unto his disciples saying, ‘Verily, I saw unto you, that a rich man can hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, it is easier for a came to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.’” (Matt. 19:22-24) As previously noted, the rich man represents a rich mind, or a mind that is rich in the opinions of the world, a mind which appraised materiality above spirituality. The eye of the needle represents a gate in Jerusalem where camels had to unload all baggage and pass through empty. God is calling you to let go of the “stuff.” Let go of materiality. Let go of the stuff that you have been carrying that you felt you could not live without, because you were afraid that if you lost it you would not be able to create it again.

We are supposed to be practicing, on this plane, how to let go through giving. When you give what you have to the Lord, you get a greater return. However, when you appraise materiality above spirituality, you become trapped in a state of poverty because you have never evolved to the ultimate substance or to the ultimate glory that you are supposed to come in to.

“The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, ‘If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.’” But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful for he had great possessions. (Matt. 19:20-22) “Go and sell what you have and give to the poor,” this is another divine truth. Unload your material baggage. Unload materiality. God really wants you in your own business. He wants you to be an entrepreneur. But He doesn’t want you to be an entrepreneur after the order of Esau, where you are in the field “busting your behind” because you are selling your birthright in disguise. You have done this because you have not learned how to go into consciousness and meet with “mother” or come into connection with your subconscious thought. You have not learned how to intermingle with the hidden man within the heart nor fellowship with God, where He teaches you how to make pottage from within.

For example, let’s consider a person who operates after the order of Esau. One is making pottage by working with his hands, while the other is making pottage by working his mind. One has appraised materiality above spirituality. This is the same reason why Esau lost out when it was time for the laying on of hands; he was in the field. He missed the

"service" while being in the field. However, Jacob appraised spirituality above materiality. I want you to grab a hold of this truth, because once you grab it, even if your material goods were taken, you will say, "Oh, that's no problem. I'll create more." Why? Because you have a greater price on thought versus things. You know your thought is what sets the frame, and it sets the frame for things. Your thought sets frames in the spirit, and once it sets a frame, all you have to do is place your picture between the lines.

So, "sell all that you have and give to the poor." Now, there is no reward for blessing the poor. There is no hundred-fold return. There are no promises that are given to you. What you are supposed to be giving to the poor is not materiality. You are supposed to be giving the poor the principles of the kingdom. That is why they are not truly poor. That is why they are really rich. The poor, the people who cannot get a job, are really rich. They are rich with materiality, because if they ever became poor in spirit, they would have the kingdom. A true poor man would follow you to the church to get principles. He would not look for something in return because he knows that the kingdom of God is at hand. So when Jesus says, "sell all that you have and give it to the poor," this rich young man didn't want to give himself the kingdom. He didn't want to let go of his security.

In the same way, many people prefer that security. Some people want to leave temp work because they want to look for something that is more secure, that will guarantee a check each week – security. However, some people are making more at work temping than they would make if they had a permanent position. They may make $20 an hour temping, but they would rather get a $12.00 an hour job that gives them security and benefits. They are bound by materiality.

So, if you give anything to the poor, give to the poor the kingdom, the kingdom of heaven. By doing this you are selling all that you have. When you sell all that you have, you are releasing all of your belief systems. Now, you make the investment to give to yourself the kingdom, because now you are the poor in spirit; you are the needy of spirit. You want to enter into the kingdom. However, the only way you can enter into the kingdom is by unloading all of the baggage: laying all of your bills to the side, laying all your houses and wealth to the side, laying everything that you have accumulated, everything that has stopped you from entering into the kingdom, to the side. Then God will give you the hundred-fold return.

The hundred-fold return comes as a result of what you lay to the side as a seed. When give to the poor, to your needy spirit, you receive the hundred-fold return, the kingdom, operating on the inside of you. You will find yourself saying, "I will do that again, that again, and that again." "I will multiply this, this, and this." "I am that, I am that, and I am that." And then the answer will come back, "I Am, that I Am, that I Am."
Therefore, we must be careful how we appraise materiality, because anytime we appraise materiality above spirituality, or things above thoughts, we are on the wrong course. That is where poverty starts to seep in. That is where lack seeps in.

AFFIRMATION

I know that I am healthy, happy, loving and beloved, successful and prosperous. This which I know myself to be is the Christ, the Son of the living God. I see Him as He is in me, through me, as me, my eternal, infinite, divine self. This which I know myself to be is the answer and is not entangled in any problem. This which I know myself to be is the fullness and abundance of all things, and is not beset by any need, lack or limitation. My eternal thoughts move me. This is that which I think I am, the eternal, infinite, absolute, good reality.

I strip from my mind all appraisal of matter above thought. As a man thinks, so is he. I love and value this Lord, this law, above all. This knowledge gives me treasure in heaven and entrance into the kingdom of heaven. I strip my mind bare of any belief in matter above mind. In Jesus’ Name.
CHAPTER 6:
YOUR MIND HAS POWER

The Inner Eye

#31

Your subconscious “Self” reproduces according to what it sees with the eye of the mind.

You can increase what you have through the power of your inner eye. This is another level of Cosmic Economics. You must understand the power of your inner eye or else you will believe in the power of your outer eyes. The power of your outer eyes will lead you to poverty, but your inner eye will create new realities.

“And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled and grisled. And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.” (Gen. 31:10-11) Your subconscious “Self” or, God in you, reproduces according to what it sees with the “eye of the mind.” If you don’t understand the concept “eye of the mind,” then another way to comprehend it is as the “eyes of your understanding,” stated by Paul said in Ephesians. What your mind sees determines what will be according to what the mind it drinks or what fills it. Jacob did something to the cattle. He caused them to focus on vision. He caused them to see a certain thing so that they could produce certain results. You may not be used to writing “ten thousand dollars” on a check, but when you get used to writing it, you will start seeing
$10,000 checks being written to you. If you cannot write a check for an amount you are not used to seeing, then don’t expect one to be written to you. No one will ever give you more than what you would give to yourself.

The following story reveals how to deliberately choose and scientifically determine exactly what shall manifest in your experience. “And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chestnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.” (Gen 30:37) Jacob made the white appear which was in the rods. You are to fashion forms and images of the good you desire to be, to do and to have. If you do not fashion forms and images, the world has an image for you. Therefore, hang pictures of the good you desire to be. Hang the pictures of the good that you desire to do. Hang pictures of the good that you desire to have upon the walls of your mind, or on the walls of your imagination. If you fail to hang the pictures, someone else will hang pictures upon the walls of your mind and your imagination.

“And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.” (Gen. 30:38) Jacob set the rods which he had peeled before the flocks in the gutters and in the watering troughs, which means he went to a place where they had to drink daily. He put the images in a place where the flocks had to go continuously for their nourishment. Pictures and images of the good you desire to be, to do and to have must be fashioned and set before the “flocks.” What are the flocks? The “flocks” are both your subjective thinking your subjective feeling. The “flocks” are the feeling and the thinking processes which is your mind. The subjective “self” is always drinking in and is full of feeling, and it is always conceiving that which it sees and feels. Do you not know that your mind is always conceiving what it sees and feels?

So, what are you feeling? That which you are feeling, you are conceiving, and once you conceive it, you will have it. Once you conceive it, you will achieved it. You will give birth to the images of the likeness of that which you see and feel. When you are seeing and feeling, you are literally drinking these images into your subconscious. To conceive is to inwardly see with the eyes of the mind. To drink in is to cause the feeling nature to be full, full of good desires.

Jacob caused the cattle to see in the watering troughs. As they were seeing, they were seeing the image from the perspective of the eye of the mind. When they were drinking, they were getting full, for they were drinking in the feeling nature. Something was satisfying them. Something was quenching a thirst. You need to get images before your eyes that quench your thirst. Stop looking at your lack. Look at your fulfillment, which is your full-feel-ment. Get full of the feeling. If you get full of the feeling, you will get full of the full-feel-ment.
Your Mind Has Power

Every idea, everything, even everyone exists in you? You may not experience it, but the only reason you are not experiencing it is because you have not awakened it. Poverty is wealth asleep in you that you have not awakened. So therefore, poverty takes the stand. Once you awaken wealth, then poverty goes to sleep. People often quote Isaiah 59:19, “So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.” The enemy does not have the ability to come in like a flood. When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit lifts a standard. The “flood” is the standard. So, what is that floods? It is the same flood where He opens up the windows of heaven and pours you out a blessing. It is part of the covenant.

Now, let me explain to you the power of that flood. When someone speaks a negative word against you to curse you, that word shall not return back void. But it will accomplish what it has been what sent to do. (Isa. 55:11) When that word meets the flood, it is going to see an image, and that image is the Spirit of God. That word is going to backfire, and the Spirit of God will take it back to the person that sent it, and he will reap havoc in his own life.

Power Of The Subconscious

When we communicate with each other, we are talking to each other on the subconscious level. We are always sending thoughts. If a person holds what you believe and perceive about them as truth, then those beliefs and perceptions shape the way that person will respond to you. You may find yourself saying, “I don’t know why I don’t like him.” You are unaware of your dislike for the person on the conscious level, but the subconscious level knows the reason why. If you go to the subconscious level the “why” will be revealed. You issued a decree about the person on the subconscious level. On the subconscious level, the two of you are unable to get along because of what you believe in your subconscious. That which you released in your subconscious affects the person at their conscious level. Sometimes you have to undo what you have consciously sown into your subconscious.

The subconscious cannot discern between true and false. When you say negative things about yourself, you set yourself up for negativity. Some people have programmed themselves for their own bad situation. If you find yourself speaking statements such as, “Nothing ever comes to me,” or “I never get a break in life,” immediately say, “Cancel,” so that your subconscious won’t give power to the negativity you have declared about yourself.

Every woman marries her father, and whatever way her father treated her, is the way she is going to respond to her husband. If a girl does not get along with her father, she is going to hate her husband, unless she undergoes therapy and revisits her feelings at the subconscious level. If her father dies, she should go to the gravesite and ask him for forgiveness. If he is alive, she must make amends. If she fails to do so before marriage, she will hate husband. In the same way, if a man does not love his mother, he will hate his wife. A man may hate the fact that his mother had to leave him alone at home to raise himself as a child. If you are going to do anything economically, you must undo the negativity and the false beliefs and perceptions on the subconscious level in order to get ahead.

The Mind Goes Shopping

#32

Whatever you “pay mind” to, you buy with the energy of your mind.

Life is a non-stop shopping spree. Every human being in life is on a non-stop stop shopping spree. You are shopping everyday. Whatever you pay mind to, you automatically buy with the energy of your mind. You may have not gone into a physical department store, but you were in some mental department stores today. The moment you opened your eyes this morning, you started shopping, you started giving attention or “paying mind” to some things, some issues, some circumstances, some matters. So, all day you are continually buying and selling with the energy of your mind.

Money is energy. We create our realities. So, how do we generate wealth? How can we begin to enlarge our borders? This is “Cosmic Economics.” Most people are not aware that they are buying and selling. They are not aware that they just bought a belief system, or just sold a belief system, or just gave their power away, or just gave their life away. In the psychic realm, or in the psychic marketplace of life, everyone is always buying what he gets with the energy of his mind, whether it is good or bad. Nothing is free, not even bad luck. You cannot get pain unless you buy it. You cannot get poverty unless you buy it. Everything has a price tag on it. However, it is time for you to take your life back. You can buy your life back!

Life is a nonstop shopping spree. Most people are unconscious buyers in the psychic marketplace. They are buying and selling in the psychic realm, or the “soulish” realm. When you look at that word, “psychic,” you see the Greek word “psuche,” which means “out of the area of the soul.” Most people do not realize that they are buying and selling out of that “soulish” realm. They are unconscious buyers and unconscious spenders. In certain areas of your life, you have been an unconscious buyer. For example, you were not even aware that you were buying that pain. You were not aware that you were buying that bad luck. You were not aware that you were buying that tragedy that was creeping up to your door. You must stop being an unconscious spender.

The Bible says, “Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” (Jn. 8:32) This means that you will be free to buy what you want, “You shall know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” The truth will make you free to buy what you want instead of what you do not want. However, you can only buy what you want when you know the truth. So, the truth that you know is the truth that makes you free. Again, in order to get what you want, you must “pay mind” to it. “Mind” is the currency that you use to purchase what you want in life.

Let’s look at the bird and the snake as an example. The snake catches the bird that is in the tree. The law of attraction says, if the snake catches that bird’s eye, it literally sees the bird coming into its mouth, and if the bird catches that snake’s eyes, it is paralyzed by fear, even though the bird is high up in the tree and the snake is on the ground. That is why they call the snake a “charmer.” The snake will cause the bird to keep circling until it will helplessly lands itself into the mouth of that serpent. The only way the bird would avoid this fate would be if something distracted the attention of the snake.

The same scenario often occurs with a squirrel and a snake. By nature, a squirrel moves fast. The snake cannot move as fast in order to catch the squirrel. If the snake is up in a tree, and the squirrel catches the eye of the snake, the squirrel will keep running in circles. The squirrel does not know why it is running. The squirrel wants to get away, however, it cannot get away because of the greater mind that has paid the price. The snake knows how to get its dinner.

www.bishopjordan.com  Bishop E. Bernard Jordan 57
A Word To The Wise

"Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves." (Matt. 10:16)

Therefore, be wise as a serpent. What is the wisdom of the serpent? It is his ability to focus on what he wants. Do not let anything break your focus until you get what you want. "Pay mind" to what you want. Unless you "pay mind" to it, you will not get it. What you will get is that which you pay mind to. For example, you may say, "I don't know why that doesn’t come to me," you just "paid mind" to it. That is why it will not come to you.

Therefore, if you are a spiritual leader, a teacher, or a prophet, if you are doing any kind of spiritual work, prophetic work, prayer ministry, or counseling, it is important that you give yourself "mental treatment" because it is very easy to become the people that you counsel. It is important to undo the vibrations of the "stuff" that you spoke about. So, if you bring it up, you will bring it down. This principle also applies to those who are in the theatre. The actors must be able to break the spirit of the character of the part that they are portraying.

For example, let's look at the actor, Christopher Reeves. In one of his movies, Christopher Reeves played the role of a paralyzed man. While participating in an equestrian event, Christopher Reeves' horse abruptly stopped, throwing him from the horse. He was later rendered paralyzed. The movie threw him right into the character that he was playing. That is the power of the mind. He bought that. Now, people may say, "Oh, that was just a character. There is no connection." However, the mind does not know the difference, because whatever you "pay mind" to, you buy. That is why you must give yourself mental treatments. If someone comes to you with a problem, you must be sure to give yourself a mental treatment because in order for you to have an answer for that person, you have to put yourself in their position. You are now putting yourself in that situation.

For example, someone may say, “What would you do if your husband hit you?” You begin to think on that situation and say, “Let me see.” Later you find yourself wondering why you have problems in your marriage. Your husband has never exhibited this type of behavior, but you put yourself in that person’s place. So, the universe will go out and program that event because you have already acted it out in your mind.

So, giving yourself mental treatment is crucial because mental treatment energizes your mind and causes your mind to be healthy.

Many spiritual workers and counselors do not understand the role of the spirit, and thus do not understand how to break away from the situation of the person they just counseled. They do not know how to separate themselves and minister to themselves. They burn out easily because they are constantly going in and out of people’s lives, taking on more and more of people’s situations. However, because they have not studied “Mind Science” and do not understand how the mind works, they may find themselves walking in defeat. For example, a man working for Social Services may find himself counseling people that live in poverty. The first thing the person says is, “Listen, I need to know something. Put yourself in my place.” The counselor responds, “What is your question?” He just invited the counselor to buy his problem. Consequently, later the counselor may find that he is unable to pay his bills. Why? You just bought their problem without money, you “paid mind” to it. If you “pay mind” to it, you will purchase and obtain it with the energy of your mind.

Cosmic Principle #34

Where your attention goes, power flows.

Where your attention goes, power flows. If you want to know where your power is, find out where your attention is going. The God-given power of the mind flows into the ideas that a mind pays homage to, and actualizes them. Even bad luck, negativity, and sin will starve to death if you deprive them of the energy of your attention and belief.
For example, “How do you feel about getting old?” “I don’t think about it.” “We’ve gone through half the winter, and you haven’t caught a cold or anything? Why haven’t you gotten sick?” “I don’t think about it.” I don’t have time to give it my attention. I didn’t lend my belief to it, because where my attention goes, my power flows.

Money is the energy of the mind. When you fully comprehend that money is the energy of the mind, you will watch where you are putting your money. With whom are you mixing your seed? Currency is only consciousness, and consciousness is the only currency. You thought about those bills that you have and you thought about your checkbook. However, your checkbook is not currency. Your checkbook is the effects of currency, or the effects of consciousness.

You must not misuse your money. You misuse your money with attitudes, moods, thoughts and ideas that you “pay mind” to, that do not mount up to anything. What thoughts, moods, attitudes and ideas are you paying mind to? That is the misuse of your money. It is the misuse of where your attention goes that does not produce profit and generate a divine flow.

If you pay mind to negative things and negative thoughts, even bad luck, you will buy them with the energy of your mind. However, pay the devil no "mind." Jesus said, “Hereafter I will not talk much with you; for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.” (Jn. 14:30) Do you want to know why the prince of this world had nothing in Him? Because He gave the devil no mind. Then Paul picked it up later on, in Ephesians, and said, “Give no place to the devil.” (Eph. 4:27) The mind creates nouns because the mind creates persons, places and things. When Paul says “give no place to the devil,” he is saying don’t give any mind, or don’t create an arena, for that lie to stand in.

Jesus said, “my words are spirit and they are life.” (Jn. 6:63) Jesus literally believed that every word He spoke was a living entity. He knew that His thoughts were things. Jesus knew that all of His words were living entities. Every word that you speak is a living thing. Every word that you speak is either a person, a place or a thing. Every word you speak will be personified in a person, or you are creating a place, or you are creating a thing, because your thoughts are things. “So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.” (Isa. 55:11) That means, if a word can “goeth forth out,” a word can come. Notice that the word cannot return unto you void, which means that every word that you send forth out of your mouth must return back to you with an accomplishment. No word ever comes back as a bounced check. Every word you speak is a negotiable check.

What do you have in your subconscious mind that may cancel some things for you? You may have a cancellation factor happening on the inside of you. Maybe you are speaking like a parrot that says, “Polly wants a cracker,” but only repeating what you hear. You might be saying “I’m rich! I’m rich! I’m rich!” but subconsciously, you may be saying something else that may cancel that thought. Therefore, you must to learn how to override what has been roaming around on the inside of you. That is why meditation is important, because that is where you do your mental housecleaning. Once you do mental housecleaning, you will be able to clean up your act.

Sometimes people do not realize how they are perceived by others. Here you are trying to do all you can to just bring your little groceries together and pay your bills. Then all of a sudden, you have people talking about you, and defaming your character. You begin to wonder “What did I do to them? I have done nothing but just live my life.” The reason why they are pulling you down is because they have already seen your faith. You are a lot higher than you know. You are enlarged by perception. When you start moving at a certain level and in a certain vein, people are going to have problems with you. When you start coming into the consciousness of “I Am,” which you are, and you start expanding in consciousness, people are going to start coming around.

There will also be people that will distance themselves from you. They are going to hate the fact that you prospered. Some people will envy you because they see you having breakthroughs, and they will get angry with you. Don’t be so naïve as to think everybody will celebrate your success. Everyone will not celebrate your achievements. Life does not give any rewards for a popularity contest. Understand that when you go up in the things of God and when you go up in life, you will start prospering. However, some people will resent it.

Cosmic Principle #35

No weapon formed against you will prosper.
"No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord." (Isa. 54:17)

No weapon formed against you shall prosper. Why should that weapon not prosper? Because of the kind of aura that shields you. You have purchased your ammunition, and you have been building yourself up. You talk faith. You walk faith. You live in faith. "No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper; and every tongue...", which means the tongue is a weapon or a tool, that shall rise against thee. The tongue shall rise, creating another entity or even exciting an army. "...every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn..." You can have a tongue rise, but it will rise in your favor to bless you. However, if it rises to judge you, or if it rises in judgment to condemn you, to pull you down from the place where you are standing, then "in judgment thou shalt condemn." The reason you shall condemn it is because of divine law, the law of compensation. The condemning word will boomerang and return back to that person seven-fold, and they will end up buying their own judgment. This is righteousness.

So, when you are walking under an anointing, or an aura, and you are building yourself up, and you refuse to buy their concepts of who they say you are, you will rise up in judgment. You will begin to condemn that thing. You will not have to condemn it by speaking to it, you condemn it because of the stand that you take. So, if you pay mind to negatives, you will buy them with the energy of your mind. Therefore, pay the devil no mind. Pay negative ideas and bad luck no mind. Say to every negative idea that presents itself to you, "I'm not going to buy that. I will not pay you any mind." Why are people willing to pay that much money? Because they want to rent space in your mind. They know that if you pay mind to it, or give it your attention, or if you give it attention long enough, your power, or your belief, will start to flow in that direction.

I'll Buy That

If you pay mind to positive ideas, health, happiness, love, success and prosperity, you will buy and obtain them with the energy of your mind. Stop buying what you don't want. Pay all of your mind to God, to good, to the good you desire. Pay mind to your divine self-image.

As long as you have a belief in a power beside yourself, you are robbing yourself because that means you are looking for a god outside of you, when there is only one God, who is in you. Realize that you are the power. If you are going to fight someone, remember, whatever you fight, you ignite, and whatever you fight, you invite. Right now, if you got into the arena to fight Lennox Lewis, who has more to gain? You would have more to gain because you would probably earn millions of dollars. He already has that. He might only go in the arena with you just to get some fuel money for his plane. But this is a big thing for you, and if you happen to win that's even greater. Even if you lose, your name has been attached to Lennox Lewis.

When you fight someone, know that you are attaching your name to them. You have to ask yourself the question, "What profit is in it for me to fight you?" If it is not profitable, if they are beneath you, then definitely you should not fight them because they are not worth anything. But if you have millions to gain just by the association, then, yes, by all means, fight.

So when you understand consciousness, you understand that currency is only consciousness, and consciousness is the only currency. You are continually buying and selling with your mind. "Mind" is the currency that you use to purchase what you want in life.

AFFIRMATION

I now see and set pictures and images of the good that I desire to be, to do, to have, before the inner eye of my mind, and I drink in the feeling of health, happiness, love, success, prosperity and money. My inner eye and feelings are full of the good that I desire. I have an eye full and a belly full of health, happiness, love, success, prosperity, and money. I am in the right place, at the right time. I am divinely connected, meeting the right people, doing right things, demonstrating my faith, exercising my will, and fulfilling everything that God has ordained that I fulfill.

I pay all the energy, the love, the power, the belief of my mind to God, to good, to the good that I desire to be, to do, and to have, to health, happiness, love, success and prosperity. I pay no mind to negatives and bad luck. I will not pay the energy of my mind to negatives. Therefore they cannot touch me because I pay no mind to them.

Thank you God in me for the truth that makes me free. I make a conscious decision to live according to your word. I expand my imagination so that I can think clearly and produce the God effects that you have ordained for me. Father God, show yourself mighty on my behalf. I know you see in secret. So from this day forth I will be visiting that secret place which is within, and the Father which sees in secret shall reward me openly. In Jesus' Name.
consciousness. When an acquired state of consciousness is achieved, you are able to rest without seeing manifestation in the objective realm.

It is up to you to be all that you want to be, to do all that you want to do, to have all that you want to have. Life is being, doing, and having. Be, do and have those things that you know you are supposed to be being, doing, and having. Stop limiting yourself. God knows no limitations in you. If you want to change, repent in your image, or in your imagination. Your imagination removes the limitations, allowing you to start moving into new aspects of creation.

If a word goeth, a word can also come. The Prophet Isaiah says, “So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth; it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.” (Isa. 55:11) Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word. So the word that we speak is a living entity. Your words will not return unto you void. Every word that you speak will bring forth the corresponding action of that which you have spoken. Some of your blessings are only one word away. Some of your miracles are only one thought away, one word away.

Detox From Toxic People

People that are toxic to your temple must be put out of your life because there is no place in you for them to live. The Scripture says, “give no place to the devil.” (Eph. 4:27) If you give a place to the enemy, then the enemy will show up. Therefore, it is important that you release those places and defuse them. The moment you begin realizing that God in you is working and demonstrating miracles, you will begin see those wishes that you desire to happen in you and manifest through you, because as He is, so are you to this world.

On another occasion, Jesus said, “...this kind goeth not by prayer and fasting.” (Matt. 7:21) Why? Because once you begin to operate from a realm where you give no place to the enemy, you begin to eliminate the place from which it stands. Jesus also said, in another verse of Scripture, “…The prince of this world cometh and hath nothing in me.” (Jn. 14:30) Why does the prince of this world have nothing in me? Because the prince of this world has no ground, no place in me on which to stand.

Rev. 20:1-3, speaks about Satan being thrown into the bottomless pit. “And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years. And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.”
Speak Lowly Or Speak Loudly

What is the bottomless pit? The bottomless pit is the place, or state in your life, where there is no ground on which to stand. This is the place where you must throw your adversary when he steps into your life. It is the place where there is no ground, it is bottomless. If you give him no ground, he is thrown into the bottomless pit concerning you. He is falling, reaching for a place, seeing if he can find some place of sin, seeing if he can find a footing on which to stand. If you give no place to the devil, then the devil has nothing on which to stand.

Man In The Mirror

Many people have gone through life “breaking mirrors,” hoping that their face would change. They break the mirror because they do not like the reflection that was given back in the form of a mate, or a friend, or a loved one. However, what they see is only a reflection of who they you are. Your mate can only be the reflection of who you are. If you do not like what you see in your mate, then you must go in and change you. When you change you, then the world will mirror a different image. All things express their nature. Even if you take the time to clean it up on the outside, it will eventually revert back to its nature.

As you wear a feeling, it becomes your nature. Feelings become fulfilling. When you get full of the “feeling” you are going to get full of the fulfillment of that which you feel. Lot’s wife looked back and turned into a pillar of salt. (Gen. 19:24-26) She became crystallized. Her family was moving on, so she had to become a pillar of salt because she could not go where they were going. The image of her past was more lucrative in her mind than moving towards her future. What you look upon is what you become.

What images are in your mind? What frames are you setting within your mind? What thoughts do you have that are more real than your future? How many times are you called to move on to something else? Is there someone in your life whom you feel so connected to that you would say, “I don’t know what I would do without them”? That is hypnosis. That is an idol. When it is time to let go and move on you become crystallized because you are blind in your own imagination. Someone sold you a permanent relationship that was not ordained for permanency. Many people are so stuck in the past that they cannot move into the future. Therefore, claim what is rightfully yours. Claim your destiny. Claim yourself to be “that.” No one can stop your claim to fame. The only one who can stop you from claiming it is you. You don’t even have to claim it openly. You can claim it quietly and just change before the world’s eyes, because the world is only the mirror. Your world will only reflect the image that you are.

Suppose someone says, “How are things?” and you respond, “It could be better.” Do you know what you are saying? You are saying, you could do better about yourself. It means...

your mind is not operating at its optimum level. You don't like the image that is in the mirror. If you decide to give someone a "piece of your mind" in hopes to change how you feel, then you are off to the wrong start. At that moment you decide that you are going to break the mirror in hopes that your face will change.

Let's say you had a particular hairstyle, and you looked in the mirror and decided you didn't like the way it looked. Would you then break the mirror, or would you change the hairstyle so that the mirror would reflect a different image? If you did not change the hairstyle, then every mirror you looked into would reflect the same image. Some people have been going through life dealing with people in that same way because they may not have liked a particular response they received. However, the reason they don't like the response is because they don't like what is inside of them, because you meet no one but you. Therefore, if you do not change, then you will find yourself constantly breaking mirrors in your life. When you change you, you will no longer have to deal with the images outside of you because you have already changed the reflection, which is you. Life (the world) will only mirror you, and it is mirroring you right now. Do you like what you see?

Change From The Inside Out

"And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed." (Matt. 6:6-8)

Speak only the word of total well-being.
In this Scripture, the servant (or the mind) was enchanted or bewitched by false, lying states of consciousness, helplessness, hopelessness, grief, torment, hell, sadness, weakness, lacking peace, rest, joy, contentment, self-direction and ability. This principle is letting us know that the servant was homesick. He was enchanted or bewitched, by false beliefs.

Every one of us moves in the world of our consciousness objectified. Each of us is living in the world that we created in our own mind. For example, if you are in an apartment, then you have an apartment mentality. When you move into a house, you have a house mentality. When you move into a mansion, you have a mansion mentality. If you travel every day by public transportation, you have a public transportation mentality. If you are operating in this realm, do not get upset with someone else because they use their mind to create their world. Do not covet their world. You can objectify your own world, because your world is simply the objectification of your own mind. If you take your consciousness and begin to expand it, then you will live in the expansion of your own mind.

Consciousness is the light. What is it that you want? You must stop wanting it, and BE it. Be it in consciousness and it shall present itself to you. If you do not like the world in which you are living, if you do not like the image the mirror is projecting, do you smash the mirror? Do you get mad at the mirror? What do you do? You change. What do you change? Yourself. The problem with many people is that they do not go within themselves and change, so the mirror continues to project the same image. Until you change what is inside of you, you will never change “mirror, mirror on the wall” for the world is only mirroring what you are in consciousness. You are continually making yourself, so you must create a new space for yourself.

There was a program on talk radio where the guest said that in America you have the right to become anything you want to become. You could make a decision to be rich or poor in America, but you have to discover what you want to be, and then decide to be that. Then the man said something very interesting. He said, “If you want to be rich, then you shouldn’t become a schoolteacher, you shouldn’t become a police officer or a fireman.” He said, “We’re not saying that there is anything wrong with those jobs. If you are doing it because you want to help people, or help children, then understand that you made the decision to help. You did not make a decision to be rich.”

Understand that if you say, “I became a police officer because I like to be where the action is and I like to be in law enforcement,” then acknowledge that fact and remind yourself later in life that you became a police officer because you wanted be where the action was. You did not become a police officer to be wealthy. If you desire to be wealthy, but you apply for a job as a police officer or a fireman, then in just a few years you will be living in a world of delusion. You will never become wealthy on a “9 to 5” job. You have to make a decision whether you are going to be an employee or an entrepreneur.
Now, I am not saying to quit your day job tomorrow, because then you will be unemployed and in a worse situation. However, you have to get an idea whose time has come. No nation or army can stop this idea once the time has come. Remember, the world can only mirror what you are in consciousness.

The truth is painful. When you see the light, it makes you re-think the choices you made for your life. Church leaders have taught people that being wealthy is evil because they never understood the true principles of wealth and prosperity. The church still does not know that the streets of heaven are pure gold. They have the streets paved, but they have God on gold-plated streets.

Many people are trying to change the world in which they live by changing the people or things around them. People spend too much time trying to change other people, when, in reality, they are the ones who need to change. However, they may be reluctant to change themselves for fear of losing relationships with those whom they seek to change. However, what people fail to realize is that those relationships only exist because there is some aspect of their being that still celebrates whatever they are seeking to change.

You Get What You Pay For

Cosmic Principle #38

The world you live in is the world that you have created.

The awareness of being must exist somewhere within you. “Come buy without money.” (Is. 55:1) You buy poverty with your consciousness just as you buy wealth with your consciousness. Sickness does not even come for free. You have to buy it. Disaster and accidents do not come for free. You have to purchase them, and the way you purchase them is with your attention, for wherever your attention goes, power flows. Whatever has your attention has your power, and that is the point from which your power flows. You are producing money with the energy of your mind. So, wherever you place your attention, that is where your power will go.

Everything you purchase is purchased with your mind, whether good, bad or indifferent. Do you want to know why there may be a "devil" in your life? You paid for it. You appraised it, gave it value, and decided that is what you wanted. The only way to get rid of the devil is to "pay no mind" and give no place to him. When you give no place to the devil, the devil will have no place in you, because the devil is nothing but a lie to which you ascribe truth.

Rev. Ike once told a story about the woman who was running in her dream. She saw a beast running behind her every night. One night she was running until she could not run anymore, and she fell. The beast was over her, about to attack her, and in her fear she asked, "What are you going to do to me?" The beast answered, "I don't know; this is your dream." Nothing in life has power over you because it is your world. The only world you live in is the world that you have created.

You can only magnify what you are conscious of being. If you want to become wealthy, everyday you have to say, "I am rich. I am wealth. I am money. I am resources. I am infinite money." If you magnify this in your consciousness, some changes will occur. For example, you could lose your job one day, and all of a sudden you begin to think reflect on the comments that people have made about your famous peanut butter, "Everybody talks about how good my peanut butter is. I just found a way to grind peanuts and add a different kind of butter that will push Jiffy out of the market." Now you can take that idea begin to market it.

Once you become conscious of being, the idea is going to come to you as to how to how to generate that which you are conscious of being. There is no reason for anyone to be poor after reading this book. I am moving you ahead because you are already getting frustrated at the level that you are at now. You are eliminating poverty and making a conscious decision to return it to the "store" where you purchased it, because the only poverty you have is that which you purchased. The only disasters that you have are the disasters that you purchased. The only conflicts that you have in your life are the conflicts that you purchased. The only problems that you have in your life are the problems you purchased. You "paid" attention to them, so they came to you. As long as you pay mind to them, they will manifest in your life.

What I discovered is that as long as I kept meditating on "I am wealthy. I am infinite money," I noticed that people who had the same consciousness and were vibrating at that same frequency started coming to me. I don't know what wealth is to you. Wealth to some people could be $1,000 a week. Wealth to others might be $1,000 a day. That is not bad if that is your limit, because you set the frame. You set the frame for the picture that is in your consciousness. However, I have a different definition of wealth. Wealth is my ability to finance my imagination. If you had the resources to run wild with your imagination (and you do have it) where would you start financing your wildest dreams?

God wants to bring you into wealth, into infinite money. The government could decide to take all of the money and equally distribute it, and it would still get back into the same hands, because money goes only where money is, and it goes to the consciousness that is the strongest about money.

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." (Ps. 119:105) If you start "rubbing" your own consciousness, the God in you will begin to say, "Your wish is my command." You really have a "genie" on the inside of you that you never talk about. The difference is this "Genie" gives you infinite wishes. You get more than just three. He says, "Learn how to rub My word, or rub My law, for My word's lamp unto your feet and a light to your path."

What is it that you want in consciousness? Life will be good to you, if you will be good to life. Life meets you, just as you meet life.

AFFIRMATION

I speak the word of good health. I speak the word of happiness. I speak the word of love. I speak the word of success. I speak the word of prosperity. I speak the word of infinite money. I speak the word of wisdom. I speak the word of knowledge. I speak the word, the good word, of understanding. I speak the word of total well-being, and it is so. It cannot be otherwise, and I rejoice because of it. Thank you, Father. Thank you, God in me, who allows me to speak the word which I wish to demonstrate.

I enjoy the very thought, the very idea, the very feeling, of success and prosperity. I enjoy seeing and hearing about the success and prosperity of others. I love and bless success and prosperity and all who are enjoying success and prosperity. My love and enjoyment of success and prosperity is the power that draws more and more success and prosperity unto me and all the good that I desire.

Therefore, I bless the rich. I bless those who are prospering, for when I bless them, I bless me, for I meet no one but me. In God I am success. In God I am prosperity. I love it. I enjoy success and prosperity. Thank you, Father. Thank you, God in me. Yes, I enjoy money. I enjoy the convenience of money. I enjoy all the good that I can do.
with money. I enjoy the ease of money. I enjoy the very joy of money. I enjoy using money for my good purpose of enjoyment. I enjoy using money to pay my bills and meet my needs. I enjoy giving money to good causes that I believe in. I enjoy money as it comes in and goes forth where I send it. I enjoy the never-ending circulation and multiplication of money in my life. My enjoyment, right use, and right giving of money keeps money circulating and multiplying in my life. Thank you, God in me, for the righteousness and the joy of money. In Jesus Name.
CHAPTER 8:
THE MYSTERY OF GENERATION

Give It A Name

“(As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which is spoken. So shall thy seed be. And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah’s womb:”

(Rom. 4:17-19)

Name what you want and call it into expression.
I want to teach you how to call what you want into expression, and how to call the blessings that you know God has commanded you to have into expression. When you consider your circumstances and try to figure them out, you are weak in faith. You become weak in faith when you consider the physical world, or the physical body.

“He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.” (Rom. 4:20-21) Abraham was fully persuaded that what God had been promised, God was able to perform. Abraham and his wife called each other “father” and “fruitful young thing.” Even though they were both beyond the age of producing a child, guess what happened! A miracle was born to them! Why was a miracle born to them? Because of a secret divine law that I am going to teach you.

If you are seeking employment you have to give yourself this name: “I am joyfully employed and abundantly compensated.” If you want to be blessed, you have to learn how to “call those things which be not as though they were.” When you are calling things into manifestation, you have to call those things which do not exist into existence, even though you may not see it happening. The mystical secret is to “call those things which are not as though they were.”

Reach within yourself, and declare a thing. You may not yet be physically experiencing it, but you must first experience it in consciousness. Call yourself and one another by good names and you will produce the same. “And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.” (Gen. 2:19). The Lord God brought all living creatures unto Adam. I want you to see that those things which God brings into being, they do not just happen. Things will not come until someone produces the names. You create the nature of everything that exists in your life.

A man, or in this case, a mind, is forever assigning himself, everyone, and everything their names and experiencing them accordingly. You experience yourself, everyone and everything according to the name, or according to the nature you assign to them. Notice something here. Out of the ground God had already formed every beast of the field, but every beast of the field did not have its nature yet. The name is the nature. A lot of things that God brings about in your life, He forms it and then brings it to you to see what you will call it, and whatever you call it, that is the nature thereof. Could it be that God in you is seeing what you can call it, so it would manipulate what it will be to you at the same time?

What labels are you placing on the things that are showing up in your life? The Lord God formed it out of the ground, or out of humanity, or out of the earth. The Lord God formed everything out of the earth because Spirit really has no form. So whatever form is created it is created only for you, for your entertainment. God is within you, so you are forming things and bringing them back to yourself to see what you will name them.

Your money is what you name it, and every thing you name is your claim. You experience yourself, everyone, and every thing according to the name and the nature you assign to them. What are you calling the people and things in your life? By what name or nature are you calling people? Whatever the name is, that is the nature thereof. If you want to change some things in your life, you must rename them. Rename your experience. Rename your situation. The moment you rename it, you will have a different experience.

Whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof. People identify themselves by a name or a nature. You are making yourself in your own imagination. There is no force outside of you making you. Even if you don't have the intelligence to make you, then you turn over your power to someone else, who will undeniably make you less than what you should be, because where attention goes, power flows. So, what are you naming yourself? For it is the name, the nature of the law, or the mind, to produce whatever a man, or a mind, thinks, sees, says, feels, affirms, believes, or recognizes. You, the people, and the things that you experience are what you subjectively call them.

You name not only yourself, but you name everyone else. That's why people act differently. Everyone is giving someone else a different name, or a different nature by which they will correspond. Someone may say, "I just love this one; she's a great person to be with." Someone else may say, "I tell you, I don't want to be around her." Why? Is it because the person has dual personalities? No. It is because they are responding to the name you have called them. For example, one person on your job may think that your boss is the greatest person that ever stepped into your office. You may be sitting there saying, "This person doesn't like me. Why don't they don't like me?" Have you ever thought maybe you don't like yourself? Or did you go through the whole drama of giving yourself ten reasons why they won't like you? You started giving them an unfriendly nature, and because you named them, that was the name thereof. This is why they have been giving you a hard time. You subconsciously projected a hard time on yourself.

Form and Fashion

God forms every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air, but he brings them unto you. You are like Adam. God brings them unto you only to see what you are going to call it. He puts it on the runway of life to see what label you are going to give it, and whatever label you give it that is how he shelves it in your life. God formed it, but even the form doesn't have a nature, or doesn't have the name until you come in contact with it.

You, and people, and things in your experience are what you subjectively call them. They all reflect your subjective words of thoughts and feelings. Keep calling yourself, others, and things by the good name, the good nature that you wish actualized in your expression. Whatever label the world has given you, it is up to you to re-label you. Oftentimes, people enter your life, but you have not re-labeled them. Instead, you accept the labels they already have. However, you should not accept the world’s labels of individuals with whom you come in contact. Re-label them!

Cosmic Principle #40

Calling upon the name of the Lord invokes power to rename your situation.

“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” (Rom. 10:13) To be saved by calling upon the name of the Lord, or the name of the law, is to use the God-given power of thought to call into expression the good, where evil, negative, or lack appears. You are able to call that thing, which is an experience in your life, or some aspect of the nature of the Lord, “The Lord is good.” Therefore, this thing that looks like an accident that has just happened, I’m calling upon the name of the law, which gives me the power to rename it.

Someone may say to you, “You really worked a miracle because everyone who that had that experience thought it was a terrible thing.” You can respond by saying, “Yes, I know, because I called upon the name of the Lord. And guess what? I got saved in it while others were taken out from under it.” That is how someone else’s trash can become someone else’s fortune, because someone called on the name of the Lord, or placed the demand upon the nature of the law.

Therefore, all things God formed are brought to you to see what you will name them. What did you name your situation? You named it according to the nature of the divine law that gives you the power to name your situation. Don’t name it according to what it looks like. Name it what you demand for it to be. Jesus took the boy’s lunch, the fishes and loaves, and he named it, “Enough for all, and some left over.” Someone else named it, “We don’t have enough.”
"In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them, 'I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat: And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.' And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? And he asked them, 'How many loaves have ye?' And they said, Seven. And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people. And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them. So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away. (Matt. 8:1-9)

In this passage of Scripture, Jesus renamed the loaves. He re-labeled the package. The loaf's packaging may have said "only serving for five." He changed the label to say "for five thousand and more." The form will always come into your life to see what you will name it. What are you naming the form?

That's Plenty

You name things subjectively by your corresponding action to things that are formed around you.

Let's go to Mark 6:30-41. I want you to see the same miracle again, under another condition. 'And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. And he said unto them, 'Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.' And they departed into a desert place by ship privately. And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him. And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, 'This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed: Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.' He answered and said unto them, 'Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?' He saith unto them, 'How many loaves have ye? go and see.' And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass. And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

You name things subjectively. What do I mean by naming something subjectively? Jesus started preparing the people because he knew he had enough to feed them all, although his disciples didn't know it. Sometimes you can't name things objectively because you may get into an argument on that plane. So you do it subjectively. For example, you might be going to buy a house. You know you don't have enough money in the natural realm. However, what you begin to do at this point is start packing and preparing for the closing. People who know the problem will look at you and say, "How are you going to get that done?" The others that don't know you will buy your label. Now, they start believing you have enough. Why? Because you believe you have enough.

Jesus did not have enough bread in the natural to feed the multitudes, but he started sitting them down to prepare them for the bread as if they had enough. This is an important principle of Cosmic Economics. You name things subjectively by your corresponding action to the things that are already formed around you. Jesus' disciples were saying, "Are you going to give us some money to go out and buy bread for all of them?" Jesus didn't argue with that. He said, "How many loaves have ye?" Then he started preparing the room (the room symbolizes the desert place in this case). He started preparing the people for the miracle, and they started corresponding.

Jesus fed the multitudes by what he subjectively named the form. He subjectively named the form, "We have enough bread." The disciples said, "Wait a minute, we don't have enough." However, because of the name that Jesus gave to the bread subjectively, the bread picked up that nature, the nature of the law. Sometimes you cannot reveal your facts when you are working miracles. Stop discussing facts. Stop explaining the details and just start subjectively naming it. Name the outcome of the situation that is right before your eyes.

"Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Rom. 10:13) Why are you not saved? Because there is a form in your life that can meet every one of your needs, but you are not using the nature of the law. You are not calling on the name of the Lord. There is a skill in your life right now that can bring millions in your direction, but if you do not take that gift and name it and label it, by the nature of the law, you will be in poverty. You will be thirsty because you did not know how to drink the water that was formed right before you. You may have ice blocks all around you, but tell people there is nothing to drink. You are going to die of thirst because you never took the form, put it over some fire and renamed it so that you can have a drink. However, you must understand that you can manipulate matter just by what you subjectively think about matter.

Lift It Up

“And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. (Mk. 6:41)

Lift up only those things that can be multiplied.

When Jesus looked up to heaven, He did not look up to heaven to ask God to do something, but he “looked up to heaven, and blessed.” It is not God’s job to name your situation, it is our job. Jesus lifted the bread up into consciousness. On the physical plane He was taking it from where it was “only enough to feed five people.” The disciples were being lifted in consciousness because Jesus was about to materialize “for five thousand.”

In the same way, you have to lift up your money. The only things that can be lifted up are the things that can be multiplied, those things that you bless without setting limitations on them. You have to move your money out of those visible denominations and see it with the eyes of your consciousness. For example, Jesus was dealing, in this case, with five loaves. Let’s look at these five loaves as $5.00. Somehow he had to get $5.00 into 5,000 hands. He lifted up the $5.00, and blessed it, and then he began breaking it as if he had enough for everyone that was working with him and participating in this miracle. This is Cosmic Economics!

“Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways. When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person.”
(Job 22:28-29) When men are cast down ("men" can be any matter that is cast down), there is something you are supposed to say, according to Job. God is waiting for you to say it. He brings men your way who are cast down so that you can label them and give them a new life, because they do not know how to give a life to themselves. All of this is about decreeing a thing. When men are cast down, you should say "there is a lifting up." All of these forms that the Lord has made out of the ground were cast down, and Adam had to issue a decree that would lift them up. He saw a bird, and he lifted it up. He saw a dog in the dust as God was casting that form, and he lifted it up. He saw a giraffe, and he began to lift it up. As he was naming the nature of the giraffe it kept getting taller and taller. Whatever name you give to the form that will be the nature thereof.

"...There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person. He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands." (Job 22:29-30) The Savior is the word that is in your mouth. You have the word in your mouth to save the world, if you can begin to re-label what comes across your path. Do not call yourself by any name that is negative: Do not call yourself by the name of sick, lack, afraid, poor, or any negative name, lest you will express and experience the same. Roman 12:2 says, "Be not conformed to this world: but be ye, transformed, by the renewing of your mind..." Therefore, understand that what the mind continually hears, the mind will act upon. You are continually creating your own world of experience, and you call it forth either consciously or subconsciously.

AFFIRMATION

Father God in me, I thank you for the truth of God concerning me. I decree that the will of God will continually be expressed in me, as me, through me. I now participate in the nature of the law, which is to name all things so that I can produce the same. I take my divine right according to Romans 4:17, and I call those things which be not, as though they were.

I now take the liberty of assigning to everyone and everything their name, so I can experience it accordingly, for the nature I assign to a thing, or a people, I will experience the same. I take my power back and use the God-given power in me to unlock the wealth and the ability within me. God in me, be glorified, in Jesus’ Name.
CHAPTER 9: YOU MUST HAVE SURPLUS

Word In Motion

“When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.” (Jn. 6:5-6)

Cosmic Principle

Wealth and abundance are ordained for you to have.

It is important for you to understand the ability that God has ordained for you to come into. God has ordained for His ability to be seen and demonstrated in and through your life. Wealth and abundance are ordained for you to have. Ever so often, we can have moments of insanity where we forget how to have surplus. It is God’s will for us to have surplus. It is God’s will for us to have more than enough.

God always bring “form” to you for you to name. Therefore, speak the word only. Speak only what you want demonstrated. Speaking is not only speaking words through your mouth. Speaking is what you say consciously and what you say subjectively or subconsciously, because “out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.” The name of Jesus is sweet. It is not some magical formula you use on the end of prayer, but “in the name of Jesus” means “standing in the nature of Jesus.” I am in His nature. I am a partaker of His divine nature, and as long as I am partaking of his divine nature, I am operating in his name.

You also name every "form" that comes with direction. For example, you may have a boss who you believe always allows one particular employee to "get away with murder" because that employee just happens to find favor with the boss. But for yourself, you say, "The boss doesn't like me." The reason why this may happen is because when your boss first came you operated in the "law of first mention." What was the first name you gave them? They responded to you according to the nature of that which you spoke into existence. You are naming things everyday, whether consciously or subconsciously. When you name something, that is its nature. Therefore, when you understand the nature of some things that you name, there will be times when you will have to take some things back through the process and re-label them, or rename them.

This explains why you should not call your child "a bad kid." If you call them a "bad kid," then bad behavior will come forth because that is the label that you gave them. However, you are really the "bad" one. When a child is in its first body, up to the age of 7, it knows no difference between good or bad. You are the tree that feeds them the knowledge of good and evil. You start feeding them this knowledge of good and evil when they are four months old. "Have you been good today?" That child knows nothing of good, has no concept of good, has no perception of good, but you are feeding that perception to them.

When children come to earth they come just like God. They have no concept of duality in nature, because they come in oneness. All they know is that when something is out of order, their job is to cry and send a signal so that their need is met. They come from a realm where there is no lack.

Don't Believe The Facts

Cosmic Principle

What God reveals in the Spirit realm supercedes the facts.
"Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat?" Jesus brought that question to Philip only to see what his answer would be. God brings the problem to you to see what kind of name you are going to give it. Everyone is always being tested in some realm of their faith. Once you understand that something is being tried in you, you will have to have to take a stand and decide, are you going to believe the facts, or are you going to get into Spirit and believe the realm of the Spirit.

Philip and Adam had to come to the same point of decision. Though the times may have changed, the principle remains the same. The form may have changed, because the Lord brought the animals to Adam, and here, He is bringing the multitude to Philip. He asked Philip, "What are we going to do?" Philip looked up and saw the great company. Jesus put the great company in Philip’s lap. Jesus knew what he would do, but he waited to see what Philip would name it.

There are some situations where Jesus knows what he would do, but He brings them to you to see what you will do. The Bible says, “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and all of these things shall be added unto thee...” All of these things shall be one. What things? All of the things that you set as a limitation. Some of you have sought the kingdom of God and you might only have $50. That is all that your mind would provide faith for. I want to take you to another level in seeking the kingdom of God and show you how to work. Some people have had things added, but not enough things have been added. The problem is they have not expanded their consciousness to the kind of things that are supposed to be added.

When you get hurt by something or someone, it proves that you placed a greater value on them more than what you should have, and it was an erroneous value. Many individuals are missing their life. Gehazi was called to follow Elisha, but Gehazi could not perform the same miracles as Elisha. The reason Gehazi could not perform the same miracles as Elisha is because Gehazi did not have Elisha’s spirit. Gehazi had a hidden agenda. Hidden agendas will always remove you from the life of your mentor. When you have an agenda, it demonstrates that you have not factored your life, or surrounded your life, around your mentor. You will not fully receive the spirit of your leader.

Now, as we come into Cosmic Economics, when you start operating at a new level, or on a new plane, this is going to be vital to you. If you can grab this truth, you will leave your life where it is and start living from another plane. Philip was definitely on a different plane than Jesus, because Philip was not in position to multiply bread, as Jesus was. It is all because of consciousness. You can only do things according to your consciousness, or according to your faith.
Elevate Your Mind

“Philip answered him, 'Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.” (Jn. 6:7)

Cosmic Principle

#45

If you do business from God's economy, He will send supply.

The world mind is always saying there is not enough, there is a shortage, or our need is greater than our supply. The world mind will always say there is a shortage. The world mind will always say your need is greater than your supply. The world mind will always tell you there is not enough. If you know that the Father has called you into this direction, and you’re walking in that direction, you must be careful because your mind is going to say “this is not going to be enough.” But if you are conducting business on another plane, if you are doing things on another level than God’s economy, then he will send a supply, because you are gathering it from a cosmic level, or from a heavenly realm. As long as you are about the Father’s business, the Father is about your business.

Do you not know that the supply came from a realm that you cannot consciously deny? I cannot tell you where it came from or when it showed up, all I can tell you is that it showed up. Some people may hear the voice of God tell them to do something, or to give your time to something, but the reason they may not give their time to that is because they feel their need is greater than the supply. For example, the Father may say, “I want you to give four hours a day in some work of ministry.” You have to make a decision. You can choose to say, “Okay, Father, I know this is you, but I don’t understand the reason. Evidently, you’re calling me to this for some reason.” Now, as you take a step, faith is coming, but fear is coming simultaneously. It is at this point that you must make a decision. You could possibly take the road of fear and say, “God gives me common sense. Let me be like Esau and go in the field to try to make my birthright happen, which I am going to lose because I sought to save my life, so I end up losing it.” Or I can be like Jacob and stay in the house, and stay around consciousness.

Why was Jacob around consciousness? Because Jacob was with his mother, (the subconscious). Jacob ended up beating Esau, who left consciousness, and by the time Esau got back to consciousness, the birthright and the transaction had already taken place. Why? Because one did it from within, while the other one was trying to do it from without (without having the substance within).

True wealth is consciousness. It is time for you to multiply your fishes and loaves. God has given you the key. You must work with it one day at a time. There is a God given idea within you that is ordained for production. “One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, saith unto him, ‘There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?’” (Jn. 6:8-9)

Again, the world’s mind says, “What are they among so many? There is not enough.” Have you ever had this mind talking to you? Have you ever had one of these disciples in you saying, “What are we going to do with so little among so much?” Andrew found the lad who had five barley loaves and two fishes, but what were they among so many? Have you ever looked at your paycheck and asked, “What is this check among so much?”

God’s Reservoir

“And Jesus said, ‘Make the men sit down.’ Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.” (Jn. 6:10)

Cosmic Principle

God in me is my supply. Therefore, my supply is greater than my need.
Jesus said, “Make the man sit down.” He started naming the fishes and loaves. He started naming the form that was before his eyes. It is important for you to understand that you have everlasting surplus. Jesus took what appeared to be a limited amount of food into his hand. What he literally did was take a limited amount of surplus into his hand. When Jesus took the food into his hand, he took it into his spiritual understanding. When you take matters into your hand, you do not take them into your physical hand. Understand the esoteric definition of hand – you take it into your understanding, whether spiritual or material. God brings all forms to you so that you can take it into your spiritual understanding, process it, and name it. It comes into your spiritual understanding like a factory for you to name it, dress it, and keep it. Then you send it back out and it begins to serve you according to the nature you assigned to it.

It isn’t that the miracle has not happened, but you have not worked the miracle. The manifestation of the Spirit, according to 1 Corinthians 12, is the working of miracles. You must get up and work the miracles. What is the working of miracles? It is when things come in your direction in some form and you take it into your hands, just as Jesus took the bread in his hand. You must take that form into your spiritual understanding. You must understand economics from a cosmic plane, for when you do, you will materialize God and demonstrate God in you. You will manifest what you want buying in you, through you, as you, and out of you. “And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.” (Jn. 6:11-12)

Cosmic Principle

Whenever there is not enough, it is in divine order to create a surplus where there is overflow and an abundance of supply.
"And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude." (Matt. 14:19) Heaven is in you. It is not some place in the sky. Heaven is that high place in you where God dwells. Heaven is that high place in you where God thinks. Heaven is that high place in you where divine order is in order, and never gets out of order. When Jesus lifted up the loaves to heaven, He lifted them up to a realm within himself. You may think he looked up into the sky, but the miracle is not in the sky. If the miracle were in the sky, everyone that has ever flown in a plane should experience answered prayer as soon as they reach the sky. Heaven is a realm of consciousness.

Take matters in your hands so you can lift them up to the high place in yourself where God dwells. Take matters in your hands so you can lift them up to the highest place in yourself where divine order is in order, and where it never gets out of order. Whenever there is not enough, it is in divine order to create a surplus where there is an overflow and an abundance of supply. That is the reason why meditation becomes so important, so that you can go within yourself and create out of yourself.

UNDER THE SHADOW

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." (Ps. 91:1)

Cosmic Principle

#48

The high price in you is the place where there is no lack.
There is a high place in you that is secret, but you have to go within yourself and find it. Until you go within, you are going to do without. Some people fail to get their miracle because they are dwelling in a microwave age. They are looking for a microwave prayer with microwave answers. However, you can go within, and things will start to happen instantaneously. You must develop the ability to journey within. However, this is a learned process. The high place in you is where everything is everything, and nothing is lacking or missing. This very heaven is within you now and forever.

Jesus said "...You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." The truth that you know makes you what you know. According to Rev. Ike, "When you find heaven within yourself, you will find yourself in heaven." Many people never get to heaven. Why? Because they never find heaven within themselves. When you find heaven within yourself, you will find yourself in heaven. Look up to the heaven within you.

"If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth." (Col. 3:1-2). Many people have their affections set on things on earth. However, this is where many of us become disillusioned. What are your appraisals coming in at? That let's you know where your emotions are. If you are hurt about something, then you gave it a higher appraisal value than it deserved. When you get to the place that is anointed, it will be appointed, and if it's appointed, it cannot be disappointed. Disappointment shows up when you go to a place that was never appointed. You were dealing with something upon which you placed an erroneous value. It was never appointed to begin with, which meant that it was never anointed.

Believe God in you for surplus instead of believing in man for shortage. Look up to that place, the heaven in you where God dwells, and see that there is no shortage in God. See Him as He IS!

The Hidden Truth

"Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." (1 Jn. 3:2)

See yourself in the high place, in the place in heaven, in the place where God thinks, in the place where God dwells, in the place where there is divine order and order never gets out of order. Now, are we the sons of God. It does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when He shall appear, when He shall appear in that high place in us, when He shall appear in consciousness, that we shall see Him as He is.

Jesus was always looking up to heaven to see what the Father was doing so that he would be doing the same thing. That is why Jesus said, “The Father in me doeth the work.” (Jn. 5:30) Jesus went within to visualize, to get a glimpse, or a bird’s eye view of what the Father in him was doing. When he did what the Father did, he achieved the same kind of miracles and results as the Father.

You must take the journey within. Look up to the highest and uppermost mind of God in you. You have to visualize the riches of God in your life, because where there is no vision, the people perish. (Prov. 29:18) When you meditate, you are shutting your outer eyes to the world’s mind, and you are going within to open up your spiritual vision.

Cosmic Principle

You must keep the law of visualization so that you can come into the experience of realization.

What is this law? This law is the law of vision. You must keep the law of visualization. You must keep the law of visualization so that you can come into the experience of realization. There can be no realization until there is visualization. Until you go in to get a vision, you will have to walk through life without provision. Why would you walk through life without provision? Because you have taken matters, or the limited, into your hands, but you never brought it into heaven. You never brought it into spiritual understanding. You never brought it to that higher most place where God thinks. You brought it to where you think. That is what you do with a budget. A budget is when you bring it where you think. Miracles happen when you bring it to where God thinks.

You have to take what is a shortage or limited substance in your hands to the place where God thinks, into the higher most place of God, where divine order is in order and where divine order never gets out of order. Get ready to multiply money! All you have to do is correct your understanding. Once your understanding is corrected, your life is corrected, and you begin to operate from a different realm. If you do not look away from shortage and see plenty, you will die in need. Some people look at their paycheck religiously. They just sit and stare at the check stub. However, they should take it in their hands, into their spiritual understanding, and lift it up to the innermost part of the place where God thinks.

His name, His nature, and the divine laws He works by are good. The divine laws in which He operate are good. The divine laws he chooses to demonstrate are good. His name is good, and His name is Jesus. Jesus’ name is the principle of the law by which the Spirit functions. If you do not look away from shortage and see plenty, you will die in need. Flip Wilson was a prophetic comic. He told you years ago that “what you see is what you get.” If you see shortage, you get shortage. Look away from shortage and see plenty.

“To look” means “to look correctly,” because even Jesus lifted up his eyes. He was looking creatively and spiritually. “To look” means to gaze within and see the good that you want to see. By seeing it, you create it. See the good that you want to see. If you are not happy, you know that you are not keeping the law of visualization. You are visualizing from the wrong place. You are visualizing from where the beast thinks.

“And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” (Rev. 13:16-17) You can have billions of dollars and still have the mark of the beast. Just because you have billions of dollars does not mean you have arrived at the level of knowing God is infinite. You can have billions of dollars, but be afraid to lose it all tomorrow. You can have billions of dollars, but live at a level as if you only had ten dollars because you are afraid to circulate it. You won’t even buy and sell unless it is within your budget, or within your realm of limitation.

Notice where the mark is – The Scripture says, unless they have the mark or the name, but in verse 16 he says, “he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond to receive in their right hand, or in their foreheads.” Notice that it is “in” the forehead, and not “on” the forehead. Most Christians are looking for someone to put a tattoo on the outside of their forehead so they can say, “That is the mark of the beast.” However, most of them are operating with the mark of the beast. They don’t know the mark of the beast because it is in their forehead, which means it is in their mind. Learn to use the name and stop operating from the realm of limitation.

Man was created on the sixth day, but man sold out a man from the image and fell into humanity. He left deity to become humanity. God calls you to be born again so you can leave the flesh and pursue the life of the spirit. So therefore, by seeing within, you compel the creative process of whatever you see, and look away from the downward appearance of lack, limitation and shortage. Look upward to the unlimited source of God in you.

AFFIRMATION

Father God in me, I thank You for the truth that makes me free. I thank You for the spirit of revelation and illumination that brings me to a new thought and a new reality of what I Am. I Am that I Am. I acknowledge the unconditioned “I Am” that aspect of my being which is only aware. I also acknowledge that aspect of my being that is filled with desires and ideas. I fasten them together within me. I see new opportunities and new possibilities. I visualize them now. I create new setups for myself right here and right now. I am being setup for the good that I desire.

Now I have a testimony, because what is on the inside has now come to the outside. That which is within me is seen by all. I Am that I Am. I Am that I Am. I Am that I Am. I move forward in the plan of God. I bring change into the lives of every individual that I am called to impact. I bring change to every individual that has crossed my path. They will see that God in me is true.

The presence of God in me now creates great realities through me as me. I thank You, God in me, for this truth concerning me. I will never doubt you again, but I will believe that those things which I say shall come to pass. I speak a new word concerning my destiny. I speak a new word concerning my truth. I speak a new word concerning my being. I Am, I Am, I Am that I Am. In Jesus’ Name. Amen.
CHAPTER 10:
LIFT UP YOUR EYES

What Are You Looking At?

"When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, 'Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?' And this he said to prove him, for he himself knew what he would do. Philip answered him, 'Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little." (Jn. 6:5-7)

#50

Whenever the suggestion of shortage comes to you, look up to heaven.

Jesus lifted up his eyes and saw a great company. He then heard some hard core facts. As we are dealing with Cosmic Economics and generating from the other side of life, you will have some hard facts that will be presented to you. You have to make a decision whether you are going to accept the facts, change the facts, or turn the facts around. When Jesus said to Philip, "Whence shall we buy that these may eat," he said it to prove Phillip, for Jesus knew what he would do.
The world mind will always say, "There is not enough." The world mind will always tell you there is shortage or that there is not enough supply. The world mind will always say that our need is greater than our supply. How many times in life have you felt that your need was greater than your supply? But as we begin to look at this, we see that Jesus takes the limited amount of food in his hand. Metaphysically, he brings it into his spiritual understanding. This teaches us that we need to take matters into our hand by taking it into our spiritual understanding. Through your spiritual understanding, you begin to process it into the truth or the reality that it is ordained to come into.

The problem with most of us is that we accept the hard facts and never get any understanding, or the understanding that we are getting is not spiritual, so we end up devastated through the process of it. When the suggestion of shortage came to Jesus, he looked up to heaven. Whenever the suggestion of shortage comes to you, you must look up to heaven. Heaven is that state of consciousness where God dwells and thinks. Heaven is that high place in you where divine order is in order. Heaven is within you. You eliminate your shortage by lifting your eyes up to heaven, or lifting up to that realm in you where God thinks.

When we lift up our eyes, we are not to simply see hard core facts. However, we must look correctly, creatively, and spiritually. Your eyes are the correcting factor. When it comes to manifestation, your eyes initiate correction. If you don’t look correctly, you will not have correct results. Seeing is believing. But you must learn to see from the spiritual realm and not from the material realm of lack and disappointment. Do not focus on the material realm, for it does not allow things to be that are ordained to be.

CHECK YOUR VISION

"Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he." (Prov. 29:18) You perish because of a lack of vision, and you do not have the provision because you lack vision. Why? Because you are not seeing correctly. You are not seeing with the mind’s eye. You are not seeing creatively. You must look away from the downward appearance of lack, limitation, and shortage, and look up to the unlimited source of God within you. Whenever you look up to the unlimited source of God in you, you will always receive, what I call, "surplus." Refuse to take part in any idea of shortage.

"Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth." (Prov. 6:2) Whenever you talk or think shortage, you are snared by your words. You are actually taken from one state to the other by the words of your mouth. You must think, see, and speak infinite supply. Do not judge any appearance of shortage and do not mentally take part in it.
When Jesus looked up to heaven, He gave thanks. He saw the abundance of divine order. He visualized the abundance of good coming for Him, and gave thanks. Remember, the giving of thanks seals the deal between God and man; between the Source and the manifestation. God is looking for the manifestation to thank the Source. Jesus saw the better side of life. He saw the plenty. He looked away from shortage, and gave thanks. Therefore, see what you want from within. Visualize the good that you desire. Give thanks, be happy about it, and it will happen.

Give A Little – Get A Lot

"And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full. And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children." (Matt. 15:36-38) In all things you must give before you can receive. You will not receive a harvest until you give a seed. For example, in the workplace, people must give their service or goods before receiving pay. Some jobs even hold an extra week’s pay that you don’t receive until your employment is terminated. Those who work must pay their taxes before they get paid so that those on welfare can receive aid.

There is no such thing as “something for nothing.” Even Jesus had to give something before He received from God. He gave thanks. Give again and again that ye may receive a surplus given again. Only stop giving when you want to stop receiving, and not until then. Giving is a cosmic principle that stimulates receptivity. It should be a regular practice. You must understand the principles of seedtime and harvest or you will miss out on the facts that God has ordained for your life.

Even in our broadest outlook, we have turned to the Master’s statement, “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you.” So we have gone to God, we have sought the kingdom, and in the back of our mind was the thought that if we find God all these things will be added unto us. However, we did not rise high enough. There was a rising in consciousness, but not enough. Some people may say, “Well, now I am seeking the kingdom of God. Where are all of the “things?” There has been a rise in consciousness, but you have not risen enough.

Those who go to God even in the realization that all things will be added unto them are somewhere near the top, but not at the peak. The ultimate release from the claims of the world, ill health, lack, war, discord and inharmony, comes with the complete realization of “God for God.” There are no added things in God, God is the thing itself. We really don’t go to God to seek things, but we go to God to find God. Therefore, what really begins to be added to us is God realization, and then you are the one who will begin to manifest
Hidden Supply

“But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.” (Jn. 4:32)

The word of God is the “meat” which the world knows not of, and that which sustains you.

In ordinary words of our everyday living, Jesus meant “I do not live by meat, bread, wine and water alone. Certainly, I partake of food the same as you, but that is the least sustaining influence in my life. The Word of God which I take into my thought and meditation and which I ponder as I sit by the sea or when I go up into the mountain to pray, is really the meat of which the world knows nothing. That is why I can give you the living waters of truth that spring up into eternal life. That is why I can remind you of the assurance of God’s presence in all your experiences and the promise that I will never leave you nor forforsake you.” “...Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.” (Matt. 4:4) The word held sacredly within our consciousness becomes the living water and the very staff of life. It is His word that is the sustaining power.

We must learn not to react, but to realize that any evil that is done will harm only the one who does it. When the Master, Christ Jesus said, “Resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite you on your right cheek, turn to him the other” (Matt. 5:39), he gave us a spiritual wisdom which within is called “The Great Seeker.” What did Jesus mean when he said, “resist not evil”? In order to enter the state of quietness, which is a necessary experience to all of us, let us begin first of all by acknowledging that there is no one and no thing in all the universe which, in and of itself, has power to disturb or harm us, but that whatever disturbance or harm comes to us lies in our reaction to the person, circumstance or the condition. When you resist evil, you are reacting to it, in this case, and when you are reacting, you are giving your power to it. As long as we are maintaining ourselves in accordance with our highest sense of right and integrity, what difference does it make if someone hated, or disliked, or misunderstood us? Who is hurt if we are misunderstood or disliked, except the one who misunderstands?
Of course, if we fail in maintaining our own sense of rightness, honor, and honesty, the disturbance would be within ourselves, and that could only be corrected by coming back in action, thought, and deed and measuring up to our own sense of integrity. So whenever someone has a problem with you that is their problem, not yours. Resist not evil. Don’t try to correct it.

Many people react to other’s opinions, estimates and evaluations of them. In order to change any person’s estimate of you, you must make an adjustment of that conflict within yourself. You must come to the point of agreement with your adversary, and no longer resist, even mentally, what this person, or that one, or the world thinks of you. If you become angered, or upset, or hurt by the loss of things or a person, it is because you placed a value upon them. So the conflict is not with the loss, but it is with the value which you have erroneously placed upon them. Would you be upset if you lost a penny? No. Would you be upset if you lost a blank piece of paper? No. Why wouldn’t you be upset about it? Because of its value; there is no value. So in actuality, you don’t get upset with the loss of the person, or thing, you are upset with the erroneous value you placed on the person or thing that is supposed to be lost. Whether it is a child, a mate, a friend, if you have been angry at the loss thereof, it is because you placed an erroneous value on it. However, if you value it as you would a blank piece of paper, you will be able to move on, because you refuse to give it any more power. Now, if you placed the value of that blank piece of paper at $10,000, then you might be a little upset. Only you know the worth you have placed upon something or someone. However, you have to change the value you have placed on it.

Many people are hurt because they have placed an erroneous value on things. Realize within yourself that nothing in the outer world has any value other than that which you place upon it, and begin to operate from that frame of mind. For example, if someone in your life...

says, “I’m leaving,” your response should be, “Go. Why? Because I made you, so I can make another.” Many people hold onto things and hold onto situations because they do not believe that they can make another. (First of all, they do not believe they made them in the first place.) Certainly, if you created it once, you can create another.

Cosmic Principle #54

There is nothing in the outer world that cannot be replaced.

There is nothing in this world that cannot be replaced or rebuilt. If sin or disease ravages your body, even that can be rebuilt by not fearing or despising the conditions. But quietly and peacefully realize that your body exists as effect and that your consciousness of truth is the substance. Should you find yourself the object of unfriendliness, inequality, or lack of opportunity, realize that these are external conditions. They can in no way harm you unless you are holding them in your thoughts as entities of powers over you.

Once you have learned to dismiss them and realize that nothing external to your own being can enter to defile, or to deprive, or to limit you, you will have agreed with your adversary. You will have given up resistance to the person, things, or circumstantial condition that was disturbing you. And in this wise, you remold the condition within your own consciousness of truth. Do not repute or argue with it. Do not try to overcome or rise above the situation. But face the entire world by taking them into your consciousness of truth, and seeing that there is no power outside, resolve them and bring yourself into atonement of divine selfhood.

So, begin to ask yourself some questions. Does this so-called problem have power over me? Is my reaction giving it power? Is it not my fear or hatred or, in some cases, my love of it that gives it power over me? The main point to see is that any so-called problem, in and of itself, is not a power, and has no power. Each time you obtain victory over something or someone, they remain only to return and battle again. So victories in the outer are fruitless and prove nothing. Sometimes we get outside victories and they don’t prove anything because you never got connected with the source.
Therefore, obtain your victory by giving up the battle. Resolve all conflicts within your own being, and they will disappear into the deep clear pool of silence. If a thing is beautiful or artistic or valuable to you, it is because you vested it with such qualities. The Bible says, “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world.” (1 Jn. 2:15) This does not mean that we are to withdraw from the world of business or home or other relationships, but it means withdraw from the conflicts of the world, or be not of the world’s opinion. Your value system must be different from the world. Jesus said you have to be willing to leave mother, father, sister, brother. Why? Because your value of a mother is different from the world’s value of a mother. You have to change your value system.

The great secret, resist not evil, agree with your adversary quickly, and when in struggle and strife with your peers, take it within your consciousness and resolve it. There you will find peace, “the peace of God, which passeth all understanding.” (Phil. 4:7) The outward man relies on his own strength. The inner man relies on invisible powers of omnipotence which work silently and ceaselessly out of sight. The man of sense puts his trust in visible means of support. The man of God puts his trust in those invisible means of support above, which the average person knows nothing. You see, life is not what it seems; it is spiritual and not material. The moment you understand that life is spiritual and not material, then, and only then, will you get a complete balance and a right outlook concerning life itself.

AFFIRMATION

_I look away from every downward appearance of lack, limitation and shortage, and I look up to the unlimited source of God in me. As I look up, I see myself having abundance of all good. I see myself established in the surplus of all good. I give thanks for abundance. I bless the idea of abundance. It is wonderful. I see myself enjoying an abundance of health, happiness, love, success, prosperity._

_I see myself having plenty of money. I see myself having infinite money. Money will come to me to meet all of my needs. From this day forward I see supply. The supply is greater than my need. I affirm today that God in me is my supply. I affirm today my supply is greater than my need. In God I have everlasting surplus. Thank you, God in me, for infinite money that is coming in my life. In Jesus’ Name._
CHAPTER 11:
UNDERSTANDING
CONSCIOUSNESS

Voyage To The Center Of Your Mind

"Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil." (Matt. 4:1)

Cosmic Principle

Life is a journey, but you must learn to journey within.

There will be times when you will be led into the wilderness. The "wilderness" represents the place of the wild. We experience a new depth in God as we find a new depth within us. One thing we are discovering is that life is journey, but we all must learn how to journey within. Unless you learn to journey within, your journey on the outside will be negative.

God is beginning to call us into new challenges and into new areas. Whenever we are called to make a new thrust into the future, we must break a cycle. It is time for us come into a new horizon. It is time for us to come into a new horizon as individuals. It is time those who are homeless to be homeless no more. It is time for us to go from being employees to become entrepreneurs. It is time for us to stop looking to buy just a house or to start a business, but we need to start buying large apartment buildings, and buying corporations. God wants you to know that he has called you because he has given you the land! If you do not begin to realize what you were called to do, you will continue to flounder in life. What a great time to begin to go within yourself and have an inward journey! Have constant communion with God! Communion means “common union.” I want to show you how to turn stones into bread. It is not anything like what you think!

I Am What I Think

“And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred. And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” (Matt. 4:2-4)

If you don’t understand the law of mind, you will succumb to a trick of your mind, which would be a trick of the enemy. “For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.” (Prov. 23:7) We do not speak words with our mouth, but we speak words with our consciousness. Speaking is not done with the mouth, for “out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh.” (Matt. 12:34) Therefore, the heart must speak before the mouth speaks. The mouth should be trying to catch up to the heart. Many people wonder why negative situations have manifested in their lives. Things may be happening in their lives because of what they are claiming subconsciously or speaking unconsciously. You are your thoughts. Until you accept the fact that you are your thoughts, you will not be able to come into all of the blessings and the unique situations that are ordained for you.

A group of doctors experimented with 20 people to test the power of perception. One test required the doctors to paint different colors on the faces of the participants to make them look like ridiculous clowns. The doctors told the people they were going to send them out into the street to mingle with the public. The doctors then took ten people from the initial group into a back room and told them that they needed to have their makeup adjusted so that they could look a little different from others in the control group. The doctors implanted the thought that they were going to adjust their makeup, but, in actuality, they removed the makeup from their faces. Both groups were sent out into the street.
The group wearing makeup didn’t have a problem interacting with the public. They knew they had on clown makeup, so they were mentally prepared to deal with strange looks and queries from the public. However, there was a different response for the other group. They demonstrated a dramatic emotional response because when they interacted with the public they did not receive any strange looks. In fact, no one paid them any attention. Their own perception of themselves set them up for a major battle within their own minds.

Everything hinges upon how you see yourself. Even though their faces were clean, their perception told them that they had on clown makeup, and therefore their judgment was clouded. They were emotionally scarred as a result.

How Much Are You Worth

Cosmic Principle #56

You are the sum total of your thoughts.

Do you not know the only thing that is stopping you is perception? Some people will never purchase a home because they feel as though it is too much - perception. Some people will never start their own businesses because they don’t believe their business will succeed - perception. “As a man thinketh in his heart so is he.” You are the sum total of your thoughts. The law of the mind is the law of laws, or the Lord of lords. The cosmic law of the mind is a universal principle which inevitably causes thoughts to become things according to the nature of the thoughts. The law of mind causes facts to become things according to the nature of the thoughts. Your thoughts are always creating new natures. You become the nature of the very thoughts that you think. Your thoughts will eventually turn into things. Some people should go on a “fast” from negative thinking, because they cannot afford the luxury of another negative thought.

Mental housecleaning is vital. You must eliminate dead weight. Turn your mind away from shortage, and place your mind on plenty. Turn your mind away from famine, and look at prosperity. Turn your mind away from limitation, and see the unlimited God in you manifesting the truth of you. He is declaring what is ordained for you. Turn your mind from negativity, and see the positive God, the omnipotent One, and proclaim, “God, who I am, stands in me, working through me, as me, to fulfill His will.” Do not allow perception to have a hold on you, for “God is thought, and the Lord is the law by which thought operates.”

The tempter came to Jesus and said, “If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.” Many people have given place to the words of the tempter, and the devil has you “turning stone in bread.” The term, “turning stones into bread,” means thinking, laboring, and scheming to get good supply, substance, nourishment, and fulfillment out of materiality. “Turning stones into bread,” also means believing that there is source, cause, power, supply, fulfillment, life, or anything in materiality.

Many of us look to our jobs and say “I need more money.” We then follow that by saying, “I need to work harder.” If you find yourself saying this, you may be guilty of “turning stone into bread.” You may be trying to get some substance, or some nourishment, out of materiality, when, in reality, you need to go within. I am not saying it is a sin to work overtime. The sin is when you work overtime without having gone within and heard the law of God saying that you need to work overtime. Why are you trying to accomplish your dream with long hours? Are you making sacrifices because you believe that your supply will come from materiality? You must learn to confront the thing that would cause you to entertain the thought of working to get something instead of using your faith to get it.

Some people have fallen into the trap of working two or three jobs, when all they need to do is journey within to discover a God-given idea that will double their hourly wages. I once read a book about a man who was able to generate $40,000 an hour. What is the difference between this man and other people? His thoughts. Evidently, he thinks “$40,000 an hour” thoughts, and most of us are thinking thoughts that are worth much less.

Whose Face Are You Beholding?

“And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.” (Matt. 4:6-7)
Cosmic Economics

Your consciousness is imprinted on your face.

God “shall give angels,” or He shall give spiritual thoughts. Angels are messengers. God will give spiritual thoughts charge over thee to keep you in all your ways. I like the way Psalms 91:12 says, “the angels shall bear you up.” The angels, or those spiritual thoughts, shall not only bear you up, but they will also maintain your high spiritual consciousness of God. On the other hand, fallen angels represent fallen thoughts. Get the image of a winged creature out of your mind. That is the esoteric figure.

Our consciousness is imprinted on our face. When a person is depressed, they develop a long face. Their facial expression has fallen because of the fallen thoughts that they entertain. Wicked witches are pictured as having long faces, and a long nose with a crook to demonstrate that they have long, depressing, and fallen thoughts.

Your angels, or your spiritual thoughts, are given charge over you. The kind of thoughts you have indicates the kind of angels you entertain. The kind of angels you entertain indicates the type of attitude you are carrying and the kind of spirits you subject to.

Your angels are beholding the face of your “father.” Your angels can only project the image of the face of their “father.” All angels evidently do not have the same “father” because all angels, all people, do not have the same face.

Cosmic Principle #58

Spiritual thoughts will carry you into a higher state of consciousness.
"For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone." (Ps. 91:11-12) The angels, or spiritual thoughts, desire to take you and bear you up. If you are looking for a raise, stop “turning stone into bread” by looking to your boss to give you a raise. You are working with “stone.” You desire a greater increase, but you are on the picket line striking for a pay increase. Jump off of the picket line and strike a covenant with your angel. Embrace new spiritual thoughts that will bear you up. Spiritual thoughts will carry you into a higher state of consciousness. Every person is what they are because of the angels they entertain. Therefore, nothing can happen to you unless you give permission in your thoughts.

Don't Budget God Out!

"Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. (Ps. 91:13-14)

A budget eases God out.

“Stone” is matter. It is the same stone that the temper wanted Jesus to turn into bread. Your spiritual thoughts (when you are operating in a higher level of consciousness) will bear you up, lest you begin to entertain matter. Let me help you entertain matter for a moment. Look at your checkbook, and let that become your reality. A budget is easing God out. When you are working within your financial budget, it means that you are “living within the numbers.” When you are “living within the numbers,” you have the “mark of the beast.”
The Scripture says the “mark of the beast” (666) is in your forehead; not on it, but in it, which means you have a consciousness to live as man instead of living as God. Do you think God is on a budget? If you are looking for something or someone to pay you, and see that person or that thing as your source, you are guilty of “turning stone into bread.”

Cosmic Principle #60

Your inward conversations determine your outward deliverance.

Where does God go whenever he wants to manifest more things? To whom does God pray? God prays to Himself. So, why are you praying to something other than yourself? The woman with the issue of blood was healed because she spoke within herself. (Matt. 9:21) Your inward conversation will determine your outward deliverance. The only reason why you do not have more money than you do right now is because of the conversations you are having on the inside of you. The only reason why you are not expanding greater than where you are now is because you have not thought about expansion on the inside of you. You may have thought about it on the outside of you, but when you think about expansion on the outside of you, and fail to measure it up on the inside, you start moving into envy, you start moving into jealousy, and eventually, you will find yourself in strife because you are upset with outside individuals. When you are envious of what is going on outside of you, it means you are not having fellowship within. Unless you go within, you must learn to do without.

What Is Your Value System?

Disappointment may be a signal that you are guilty of the sin of “turning stone into bread,” because you are looking for something to materialize, or someone to bring something to you that only God can provide. When you are disappointed by someone or something that means it was never appointed, nor was it anointed, for you. When a disappointment comes, it means God negates the “appointment” that you once had with it, because He has withdrawn His anointing from it. Many people suffer with disappointments in their lives because they have put an appraisal, or a value, on it greater than the value it was really meant to have.

I found that there were people in my life that I had valued more than I should have. I placed an erroneous value on the relationship, which caused me to be disappointed. Now, I do not see people with a value. I see them as vehicles through whom God works. When one relationship shuts down, or one door closes, it is just a prophetic sign to me that God is opening another door. However, when a door closes, many people are so busy with the closed door that they miss the open doors that are around them. A closed door is a signal that a new door has already opened.

Some of you get disturbed when there is a loss of a job. Stop fighting that situation! Stop negotiating. It is a closed door. God is saying your time is up for that season. You have been guilty of looking at a “stone” for substance, and because you refuse to move on in life, you have become frustrated. Move away from dinosaur anointings, anointings of antiquity, and prehistoric anointings!

The false belief that there is power sourced in anything other than “I am consciousness” is the devil. The devil tempts, taunts, and drives man to “turn stone into bread,” which again, means to seek your good from materiality. Many people will go to work tomorrow. Some people will run to work understanding that their job is a vehicle through which God will work. They will understand that the company they work for is not their source, but a vehicle that God uses to bring supply. If God were to dry up that place, they would not be disturbed. They would be at peace. They would collect their last check and move on because, “I am” has created this situation. They would say, “if I created this one, I can create another.”

Another individual may take a gun and shoot his boss that fired him. He might dive off of a building or kill his fellow employees, because he has “another God beside him.” He is operating and believing that there is a power outside of “I am consciousness.” Anything that moves you or directs you to a power outside of yourself is not of God. It should always steer you back to the power that is within you, that power that is inherent in you. “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” Do you know people who have sought God, but are still broke? They sought God, but never sought the kingdom. Do you know people who love God, but they never develop their love for the kingdom? They love the Person, but not his Principle. They love the King, but was never introduced to His kingdom. Many people have fallen in love with the King, but are ignorant of the kingdom. They love the person of Christ, but missed the principles of God. When you miss the principles of the kingdom, you will live far beneath your privilege.
Your waistline or your mind?

"Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed." (Jn. 6:27)

Cosmic Principle

Invest in your mind.

Many people have been “laboring for meat,” however, meet will eventually perish. Therefore, labor not. Stop investing in your “behind,” and invest in your mind. Some people will put more money on their waistline than they will in their mind. For example, some people consume two and three meals a day. They spend about $30 in consuming food, but they would not purchase a book for $30 and read it in a day. Which is more important?

Many people do not invest enough in their minds, and they don’t invest enough in their children’s education. Some people let anything and anyone teach them teach their children. They don’t get involved in the PTA, they don’t know what is going on in their school districts, and they have no clue of what is happening in education. However, it is your right to get into the classroom and meet the teachers to find out what they are feeding your children’s minds. You should even move into a neighborhood without interviewing the school system that your children will attend. When purchasing real estate, your children’s education and educational system should be factored into your purchase price. You may end up paying an extra $20,000 for your home, but if you discover that your children are in a great school district, then the extra $20,000 may be a tremendous savings. If you are trapped in a weak educational system, a good private education may run you $40,000 or more per year. However, if you decided to keep your children in that weak educational system because the purchase price of your home was cheaper than in other districts, then in the end you may realize that it would have been better if you had taken that money and put it in a house that was located in an excellent school district. Check what goes into your children’s minds!

God, the Father, has sealed some things up for you, and He will give them to you. I heard the word of the Lord say in John 6:35, “I am the bread of life and he that cometh to me shall never hunger and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.” Why will you never hunger? Because you will come to Him. It is time for your life to be renewed. It is time for your thoughts to be changed. If you change your thoughts, you will change the outcome concerning life.

GUIDED MEDITATION

Start to see yourself excited about life. Learn to put exclamation points into your thinking and into your way of living. You are going forth into life with a positive expectation and a positive attitude because now you understand that life is leading you just as you are leading life. You are coming to a door in one of the rooms in your imagination. You are walking through that door. As you walk through that door, you are discovering that you have stepped into a room of a lot of hopes, wishes, and dreams. Your hopes, wishes, and dreams have been dormant or asleep in you, but now you have a rod in your hand, which symbolizes your ability to bring these hopes, wishes, and dreams alive. Now, resurrect those hopes, resurrect those dreams, and resurrect the success that has been sitting in the room from the beginning of your life.

Your success has been waiting for you to speak the word for that dream to come to pass. Jesus is whispering within your own spirit saying, “I am the resurrection and the life.” That same “I am” power is within you to resurrect life. You are excited about life. Go forth into life now with a positive, joyful expectation. Expect good and nothing but good. Expect happiness because now you have discovered that the joy of the Lord is your strength. Expect love because God is love. Your whole life is nothing but a great romance. Expect success and prosperity because you meditate in the law of the Lord day and night. Expect money because God gives us all things richly to enjoy. God has given you all the money you need, all the money you want, and all the money you desire. It sits within you now. Money answers all things, and now you are beginning to get all the things that money answers.
THE LAWS OF NATURE

It is more productive for an individual to live by the laws of nature.

Laws that govern Cosmic Economics are reflected in the laws that govern nature. When you understand nature, you will begin to understand life. When you work against the laws of nature, you work against your own life. You may refer to yourself as a “night person,” doing most of your work during the evening hours when everyone else is asleep. However, a trusted advisor told me that it is more productive to start living by the laws of nature; rise with the sun in the morning, and retire as the sun sets. You will get more done when you are synchronized with nature and in sync with the harmony of life. For example, when the sun is at the height of the day, your energy starts to deplete. If you rise at 10:00 a.m. or 11:00 a.m., you will find that you have less energy because the earth’s energy is depleting within the hemisphere. That is nature’s law. When you work against that law, you will find yourself expending energy needlessly and you will find that you tire more easily.

However, if you work with nature, you will eat better within the cycles of the day. You may eat your last meal of the day at 4:00 p.m., giving your system time to digest the meal. By evening, you will be ready for your meditation, and will be fully prepared to enter into your rest. Your prosperity and success are determined by your ability to meditate. How you “medicate” yourself will determine how you will meditate. The prescription you give yourself is how you prescribe your life.
The Laws of Nature

Man is made of the very substance of God. God only speaks to Himself. All I believe God to be, I Am. You have to stop looking at another and claim, “All I believe God to be, I Am.” You must begin to see that reality within you. This truth brings you back into meditation, centeredness, and focus. God is man invisible. Man is God visible. Spirit is God. Man is matter. The formless is God, which is spirit, and the form is man. One is the body (or form), and the bodiless body is Spirit (or formless). The bodiless body is the Creator and the creation.

You are spirit. You dwell within a form that you incarnate, and you are always “getting into things.” Parents, for example, will say to their child, “You’re always getting into things.” However, “getting into things,” is the child’s “I am-ness” in action. Children say within themselves, “I am that,” while the parents ponder “What is that?” The child says, “I did that,” or “I messed up that room.” The parent asks, “Why do you have to do that?” “Why did you create that situation?” By always “getting into things,” the child is demonstrating his divine mandate.

You, as Spirit, are always “getting into things.” You are in something right now. You are in consciousness. And as long as you are in consciousness, things show up around you. For this reason you should not surround yourself with negative people. They will produce negative results, which produce negative creation, which produces a negative environment.
Your mentor is the last face of God you will meet before you meet God in yourself. Every mentor in your life is the embodiment of your future thoughts, or your future self. Oftentimes, you may not understand your mentor, because you don’t understand your future. This is the reason why many people shudder at the idea of finding and submitting to a leader, or a master, or a teacher. They never became a student, so they could never assume the posture.

When a disciple tells you that his master is wrong, it is because he became a wrong disciple. It is impossible for your teacher to be wrong, and for you to be right. If your teacher tells you that $1+1=3$, then $1+1=3$. It is not your job to educate the teacher. It is your job to learn the principle or the lesson that the teacher communicates. You can never be properly discipled or mentored until you come to your teacher empty, knowing nothing. How can you be taught if you already think you know? As long as you have your own knowledge, you are not discipship material.

Why do you think the military instituted boot camp? As the cadets go through the rigorous exercises and constant drilling for six weeks, they learn that they do not know anything. Even what they thought they knew is wrong, because right can only be that which is taught by the sergeant, lieutenant, or other authority figures. The cadets do not respond to their sergeant out of their intellect, but instead echo what has been instilled in them. This is critically important because if the soldier is in danger, questioning the judgment of the sergeant could be detrimental, even deadly. Many people remain trapped within nightmarish situations because they question the judgment of those who are in authority over them. As a result, they are not able to move on. They never learn the lesson because they are still trying to decide, within themselves, whether or not “this is their teacher.” Uncertainty breeds a lack of faith when, within yourself, you say, “I don’t think this is the right guide for me.”

So many people meander through life for years looking for their teacher. But only when you become a true student does your master appear. As long as you are a wrong student, you will always have a wrong master or wrong mentors. However, you cannot meet God without a master, or a bridge. You must have the mentor teach you his ways so that you know how to act. Moses knew the ways of God. The children of Israel only knew His acts. If you do not know the ways of God, you will offend divinity within you. Instead of operating in metaphysics, you will be then operating in “messy” physics.

The moment you become the right disciple, the right master will come into your orbit. He will simply show up. Usually, your mentor comes to you during your crises or at a major turning point in your life when you reach the point of saying, “I have failed. I don’t know anything.” The master shows up when you come to the end of yourself.
Simon Peter reached a point where he knew nothing else about catching fish and said, "Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net." (Lk. 5:5) At that moment, Jesus knew that Simon was truly ready to be a disciple. You have to be brought to the point where you become the fool, or become "stupid," not knowing anything. Your mentor emerges out of your stupidity. Now, you have become open to being taught. Will you understand their ways? No. Is it for you to understand their ways? No. It is for you to accept their ways, and in your acceptance, understanding will come. It is a faith walk.

If you are in any kind of sport where someone is spot training you, they may tell you to jump, and you must learn to trust their word. We see this principle at work with children. You can tell whether or not a child trusts his parents. If the parent places a child on top of a refrigerator and say, "jump!" the child will jump, knowing that the parent will catch him. This is evidence that the child trusts the parent. However, if the child hesitates before jumping, then that means that there is a breach of trust.

If you were in a group and were told to fall backwards, would you allow yourself to fall? Do you have enough trust in your fellow man to release your safety into the hands of a stranger? How many of us could fall backwards without looking back, and have confidence that someone was there to catch us? However, until that level of trust is established within the group, there will not be unity in that group. The reason trust is lacking is because silently, within you, you may be harboring a hidden agenda. Then you could justifiably ask, "What if he doesn't catch me when I fall back, and I get hurt?" You may be harboring some unresolved hurt that caused your fall. The reality is that your own partner is really yourself behind yourself. Remember, your mentor is the embodiment of your future thoughts, or your future self.

Many people do not trust their mentors. They do not trust their guide. Unless that trust is developed between you and your mentor, or you and your leader, you will never be able to meet God, for your mentor is the last face of God that you meet. You will never be able to come into the higher levels of walking in faith without trusting your teacher. If you cannot love that which you see, then how can you love that which you don't see? If you cannot trust that which you see, then how can you trust the One whom you do not see?

Finding yourself is finding God in you.

If you have to get away to find yourself, you are not looking for yourself. You are looking for something else because your “self” is in everything that you meet. Seeking the face of God is no different from washing dishes or getting up on a mountain, because you find God within. How many of us know of people who left church for months claiming to be “going to find God?” Do they come back any better? That is not the way to get into Him. They are still looking for Him in the wrong places. Until you can know how to find God in the busyness of your schedule, you will never find Him in silence. If you cannot find Him “in prison,” like Joseph, while he was in distress, you will never find Him standing in “Pharaoh’s court.” If you cannot find Him in your poverty, you will never find Him in your prosperity, for after all, poverty is just wealth asleep.

You can increase your focus in the busyness of what you’re doing. I have gotten closer to God sometimes by just working consistently on something that my body was able to do without the use of my mind. I threw my mind in His presence and stayed in His presence for eight consistent hours. When you are not conscious of trying to think, or when you don’t have to close your eyes in meditation to go into the presence of God, you will be able to walk through life continually in the presence of God.

You must be able to apply these principles in your prayer life. Prayer does not only work in a church sanctuary. What would you do if you were at sea? What would you do if you were in turmoil?

I like something that a Bishop once testified. He was in a car driving around a mountain, when a coyote jumped in front of him. He said that when he swerved out of the way, he hit an embankment, and the car rolled over one time. All together the car rolled over twice. The only thing that came to his mind was to say to himself, “Harm to no one.” Harm to no one, to the coyote, nor to himself. That was his affirmation. He got out of the car without being hurt. The car was so badly damaged that he had to crawl out of the car. He couldn’t get the doors open. But it was just those four words, “Harm to no one,” that saved... his life. That was in his thought. That was his meditation.

Now, if he had used some obscenity, life would have answered his truth and said, "That is just what we are here to do right now." Whatever you pray to comes out of you. Whatever you pray to in your adversity signifies what you are praying to in peace. If profanity is your watchword, it reveals something about you – you are damned. That explains why you have challenges. You have damned your own self.

You can’t bring correction to everyone. There are some people who already know. They don’t need or want you to correct them. A lot of people choose their counselors based upon what they want to hear. Not everyone chooses a counselor based on truth. Not everyone wants to know the truth. Some want a pacifier.

Notice something else about that prayer which is so powerful. It wasn’t just a prayer for his own benefit, but it was a treatment to all that was in that arena, or about to come into the sphere of what he had created. Make sure that your prayers never bring harm to anyone.

A story was once told of a man who was buried alive. They thought he was dead, however he was unconscious. When he regained consciousness, he screamed and hollered, but he could not be heard. So, he started to pray. He did not pray for anyone to open his grave, because to pray that way was to pray for someone else to die. That was the only way the doors of the grave would be opened. If your prayer brings harm to someone else, then you bring harm to yourself. Whatever treatment you give to another, you give to yourself.

So the story goes on. He was able to survive. He went blind. He licked the dripping water off the metal. He lived like that for ten years, because it took ten years before another member of the church died. And his life continued on. If he had prayed for someone else to die, then he would have died also. That would have been his meditation, and that meditation would have become his medication.

AFFIRMATION

God in me, I thank you for the inspiration and manifestation of the truth of God in me. God in me, I thank you for giving me the wisdom and the ability to be all that I Am. I am good health. I am wealth. I am the coin in every realm. I am multiplying and succeeding in a very successful, loving manner. I am becoming all things, and all things are of God.

God in me, be magnified through me, as me. I thank you for the truth of God, which is me, for it is the truth that makes me free. My meditation is my prosperity, which brings me to a new height and a new depth in God. Thank you, God in me, for this truth, which is designed to make me free. In Jesus’ Name.
CHAPTER 13: BECOME A BLESSING

“I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.” (Acts 20:35)

Paul was letting the members of the church know that he had shown them all things, how that so laboring they were to support the weak. And then he said, “it is more blessed to give than to receive.”

“And Simon answering said unto him, ‘Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing; nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net. And when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their net brake. And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, ‘Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.’ For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken: And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, ‘Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.’ And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.” (Lk. 5:5-11) This is the call of the first disciples. This demonstrates how important it is to get into the “blessing business.” Jesus, in calling these disciples, had to see whether they were ready to give up their career. They gave up their ship, and as a result, they were blessed.

Before Jesus told them to launch out into the deep and let down their nets, Simon had not caught any fish. The reason he had not caught any fish was because he had no worthy seed in the universe that could earn him a worthy harvest. But Simon cast down his net at the word of the Lord. The people were pressing to hear Jesus. Jesus saw two ships standing by the lake, and the fishermen had gone out of the ships and were washing their nets. Jesus entered into Simon’s ship and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. He needed to use Peter’s ship as a pulpit to minister to the people.
There are 15 Principles to becoming a blessing:

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #1:
Get into the “blessing business.”

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #2:
The way to be blessed in life is for you to be a blessing. You need to ask yourself two questions, “Who am I blessing?” and “Who am I increasing?” If you cannot find anyone whom you are increasing in life, then that explains why you are not increasing in life. You only increase based upon how you increase others, or how you increase life itself.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #3:
“Make me a blessing,” is a far greater prayer than “Give me a blessing.” People are always looking to the Lord for a blessing. Why not pray to become a blessing? The only reason why you are begging to get a blessing is because you have not been a blessing. This is a simple piece of wisdom, but valuable truth. There are a lot of people that will come to church looking for a blessing. We give them the blessing by teaching them how to be a blessing. However, they usually do not like the prescription, so they refuse to take the formula, and so therefore they do not see the results. The results are cloaked in “How can I be a blessing?”

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #4:
“I am a blessing” is the state of self-consciousness which contains all blessings of every kind, and every amount needed and wanted, and infinitely more.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #5:
You must speak the following words in your consciousness. “I am a blessing to the one God: good, love, divine, mind, spirit, life, light, energy, in and as myself, everyone and everything.” So you are to be a blessing to the one God. To the one love. To the divine mind. You are to be a blessing to the Spirit by letting the Spirit work through you.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #6:
Let your "I am a blessing" self-consciousness broadcast this benediction to everyone, at every point in time, space and eternity. You must be in the blessing consciousness to the degree that your consciousness is always saying through self-consciousness, “I am a blessing. There is never a point in time or space where I am not a blessing; that is why I am always being blessed.” This takes the work of self-consciousness. God so loved that he gave. When you realize the point of being “I am God,” where you “so love,” you will be so giving that your life will be called “blessed.” Why will it be called blessed? It will not be called blessed because you are receiving blessings (although that will be a fringe benefit), but it will be called blessed because you are always a blessing at every point in time and space. You must proclaim, “I am always a blessing. I am always pleasant. I am always giving. I am always a blessing at every point in every time and space. I am always being blessed. I am a blessing to you in every way, form, and amount that you need and want a blessing, and infinitely more.” That is the consciousness that you have to work in. “I am a blessing.”

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #7:
When you become a blessing you will never again lack a blessing of any kind or any amount. You will only have one complaint, Psalms 23:5 “Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil. My cup runneth over.” Your cup of blessings will run over. What is your complaint? “My cup of blessings ran over.” Why? Because you are a blessing.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #8:
You will be busy urgently giving and sharing your ever-flowing, overflowing, astonishing blessings, like Peter. When Peter gave Jesus his boat, he could not and did not catch one fish blessing until he became a blessing to Jesus by giving Jesus his boat from which to bless the people. Simon got out of the “getting” business and got into the “blessing” business. Get out of the “getting” business and get into the “giving” blessing business. And if you keep on giving, people will keep blessing you and giving to you.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #9:
Jesus never lacked nor feared anything because he was God’s self-conscious blessing. He said “I am the light of the world.” (Jn. 8:12) In other words, he is saying, “I am a divine blessing, the Savior and the Healer of all mankind (or all mind kind).” “I am come that you might have life, and that you might have it more abundantly.” (Jn. 10:10) In summary, Jesus was saying, “I am come to give. I am the light of the world.” Jesus did not have the light for himself.
He said, "I am the bread of life" so that you can have life. "I come that you might have life." So I am come to give. This is why God has so much. God is bound by his own law. If he is always giving, then he must always be receiving. What has been put in you spiritually? What is the value? Put the proper appraisals on things.

Jesus came for the purpose of giving. He did not call on humanity unless he was going to give to them. You should purpose in your mind to never call upon anyone unless you are going to be a blessing. If you cannot be a blessing when you call them, drop their number. For example, do not bother your boss unless you are going to be a blessing to your boss. How do you become a blessing to your boss? You become a blessing to your boss by not dropping problems in your boss' lap. Learn to offer ideas and solutions – Be a blessing. Purpose to multiply others. Do not be a taker, but come to give.

"I come that you might have life." Come into the presence of others in the consciousness that you are Jesus. Come to them as Jesus would come. "I come that you might have life and that you might have it more abundantly. That's why I'm here."

How long do you carry someone before they can give you life? Or are you supposed to carry an employee at all? The employee should really carry the company, the company should not carry the employee. For example, an employee may write letters well, but you notice that they have been spending hours on the phone. Why don't you "come that they might have life," and take half of their telephone workload off of them so that they can remain in the center of their expertise? "Come that they might have life, and have it more abundantly."

Now, the person who writes dynamic letters is generating $5,000 a day. He feels good about himself, and you feel good about yourself because you know that you have taken a load off of him.

However, when you are a "taker," and disregard your ability to help, you will refuse to render assistance. You will not help carry the load, and your selfishness will rob everyone concerned about the abundant life. You are taking a person out of his center of expertise and putting him in the center of his weakness. The whole organization suffers. Choose to be a blessing.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #10:

Like Simon, if you are failing at getting what you want, get out of the mentality boat of getting, and into the mentality boat of giving and blessing. Get out of the "getting boat" and into the "loving, giving, blessing boat." Take your boat and give it. Simon's boat was used for getting fish, but he came to a point in his own life where he couldn't get fish with his boat. Why couldn't he get fish with his boat? Because his boat became only a "getting boat;" it never became a "giving boat." So he had to use his boat as a tool of getting by making it a tool that could be used and given.

Likewise, you must volunteer some of your talent before your talent will come back to you and reward you. Look at Peter’s boat as the talent of getting. It was a talent. It was his career. It was a tool that he needed in his business. But Jesus came and said, “Peter, can you thrust out a little from the land?” He used Peter’s boat as a pulpit, which meant that Peter lost maybe a couple of hours or so of fishing. He wasn’t catching anything anyway. Then after Jesus used his boat, he told Simon, “Launch out into the deep.” “Wait a minute, we toiled all night, and we know the waters better than you, Jesus. You’re a carpenter and a preacher; we’re fishermen. Nothing’s out there.” But the command remained the same. “Let down your nets.” Abundance showed up. Why did it come? Because Peter used his boat as a seed.

What are your talents? What gift do you have that is supposed to bring wealth into your hands? How many times did you give your talent as service for no pay; without looking for a reward? While rendering that service without a reward, you gave the universe something to work with and you will be rewarded. If you are unemployed, don’t just sit at home and collect an unemployment check. Lend your talent and your hands to your church or another area where you can serve. That is the way to become employable. If you are unemployed, that could be a signal that you were so busy being a getter and a taker in life that life shut down everything it gave to you. Life waits for you to get into the cycle of giving or get into the cycle of being a blessing so that you can be blessed.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #11:
Simon and his partners got out of the “getting” boats. They had failed at getting, despite their best efforts. This shows that working hard does not produce results. Have you ever put forth your best efforts in a job and still lost it? The reason is that there was no seed in the universe to maintain it. I am telling you, God is not mocked. When Simon turned his “getting boat” mentality into a “giving boat,” they caught more fish than they could hold. Find your talent and give it. Whatever you are gifted with, give it. A gift is given to be given.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #12:
It is your loving, giving, blessing mentality with corresponding action which catches overflowing blessings. Once the boat became a giving vessel rather than a getting vessel, it overflowed with blessings. Make your life a “giving, blessing, love boat.” If you don’t make your life a “love boat,” you will hate the boat in which you sit.
BLESSING PRINCIPLE #13:
I must give in order to get. Life gives to the giver and takes from the taker.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #14:
Let your life become a “giving, blessing vessel” and your cup will run over with blessings.

BLESSING PRINCIPLE #15:
Stop trying to get what you want, and start giving what you want. You will catch an astonishing, overflowing supply. Do you want money? Then you must give money. Do you want love? Then you must give love. Do you want help? Then you must give help. Whatever you need or want, start giving it.

AFFIRMATION
Father God in me, I thank you for truth, righteousness, and liberty, that are designed to free me and to give me divine life. I make a conscious decision today to become awakened to the truth of God in me. I thank You for the truth which is expanding in me, growing in me, through me, and as me. I thank you for making me a giving, blessing vessel.

I and my Father are one. I and my Father are the same one. Kingdom of God, resonate through me. Kingdom of God within me, I thank You for the ability to manifest this kingdom. I am the kingdom, and this kingdom is within me. Now, Father, I thank You for infinite money coming to me in all ways, forms, and modes. I thank You for supernatural and infinite money coming unto me. Money comes. I decree infinite amounts of money to come to me, for I am the coin of every realm. In every realm, I am that coin. I come as the coin of every realm in infinite amounts. Thank you, God, in me, for this truth. In Jesus’ Name.
CHAPTER 14: FINALLY...

The Necessity of Change

#66

Change is an opportunity to grow and expand your awareness and level of consciousness.

Change is an opportunity to grow and expand our awareness and level of consciousness. The Chinese use a character in their language for the word “crisis,” defined as “a dangerous opportunity.” Every crisis has a hidden opportunity. You will move toward the positive or the negative based on what is in you.

Life is growth. Part of the process of change seems dangerous because we have to give up and release something to which we are attached. Some people have a problem releasing things. They have been attached to them so long that they have become their crutch, and they find that they are unable to do with them. Even when they learn to walk, they say, “I just want to keep this crutch as a memory, just in case my leg breaks again.” Change gives you the opportunity to grow.

Change is frightening because most people, by nature, do not like to confront the unfamiliar and unpredictable. Most people see change as a negative. Oftentimes, people will perceive a circumstance of change as a negative occurrence, when it is really God moving them out of a present setting in order to elevate them to the next.
Most people view change as rejection. However, rejection is another form of birthing. Giving birth can be considered rejection because during the birthing process the baby is being rejected from its former level of existence. If the mother's body did not reject the fetus, the baby would die within her body. Therefore, rejection is birthing.

In what situations have you experienced rejection, where God was trying to birth you, but because you did not understand the rejection, you viewed it as a negative rather than a positive. Instead of viewing your change as increase for elevation because you have outgrown that level, you grieved and refused to embrace change. God wanted you to move out of the way so someone else could grow in your place. It is time for you to sit on the sidelines because the "game" is about to start again. It is time for someone else to play, however God has another spot for you later in the game.

When we fail to understand the workings of God, we will switch to our lower nature and start manifesting the "cousins" of the spirit of rejection, like low self-esteem. Low self-esteem signifies that you and your Father are not one. You start talking about others and degrading others to make yourself look great. You begin to believe that the only way you can look decent is by tearing down those that are above you. However, when you talk about someone you bring them down to your level.

Consider this story: There was a chicken in an egg that was admiring how beautiful its white shell was, but in actuality, it was afraid to hatch. Some of you are like chickens in egg that are afraid to hatch. However, if the egg does not hatch, it will begin to stink because it will become rotten inside. Could it be that you are rotten inside because there was a season in which you were called to hatch and you refused? Don't be the egg that was afraid to hatch.
Metamorphosis is a continual process that occurs in all phases of growth. Change is a continual process. Some changes are more noticeable than others, but change is continual. Growth cannot occur without change. To cease growing one would have to accept the frigidity of death, which mocks the desire to alleviate growth. Change is a fact of life that is inescapable. It cannot be alleviated through the demands of contentment, or it will succumb to the insinuation of decay.

Money Is The Answer

“A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry; but money answereth all things.” (Ecc. 10:19)
If you do not see money as a person, money will never come into your life.

We, as the people of God, have to begin to prepare for the new economy into which God desires to bring us. The Bible lets us know that “a feast is made for laughter.” We have been through a season of feasting and laughing, for the Church knows what it is to enjoy the physical expressions of the glory of God. We know what it is to jump, and shout, and laugh, and celebrate in the presence of God. Our churches are full with shouts and expressions of praise. We know what it is to become drunk on the wine of the Spirit, intoxicated on the goodness of the Lord. However, too many people leave church services and return home to an avalanche of questions from the landlord, the electric company, the credit card companies, the car loan agents, the insurance agents, the spouse, the children. Yet the Scripture says that “money is the answer to all things.” It is interesting that Solomon did not say that God is the answers to all things. But maybe he did say that God was the answer to all things because money is God in action.

Money is energy. Money is substance. Whether it is righteous or unrighteous will depend upon whose hands it is in. Money is something that God wants you to have. If you do not see money as a person, money will never come into your life.

Money is God in Action!
Cosmic Economics

#71

Watch what you think because your thoughts break into action.

The Scripture goes on to say, "Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber; for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter." (Ecc. 10:20) You cannot attract what you curse. In other words, you are to think good thoughts about the "king." You have to watch what you think, because your thoughts break into action. As we have been discussing throughout this book, all things had their beginning in another realm. They began in the realm of thought and imagination. In this three-dimensional world we can see, touch and feel the objects that surround us. However, there was a time that the objects around us did not exist. At some point someone entered the realm of thought and saw the image which had to be brought into this realm of existence.

A designer saw your clothing, the scientist saw your medicine, someone saw your television. At some point I had to see this book! We had to think on that which was invisible, that which was not measured in this three-dimensional world, but measured in time past, and bring it out of time and space, into a point of existence.

God fills you with ideas. He fills you with points. Everything that needs to manifest in your life will start with a dot in this dimension. But in that fourth dimension, in the Spirit, you take that which is immeasurable in time and space and bring it to a dimension that can be measured. God is getting the "Church" ready for the supernatural. He is getting the "Church" ready for a supernatural economy.

We are moving in an hour, economically, where the wealth that is desired must be accessed in the Spirit. The wealth and provision that you will need will not come through the usage of Madison Avenue techniques. You will have to reach up in the Spirit and conduct your transactions, pulling wealth from the Spirit realm into the natural realm. Just as the Apostle Paul said, you will need to “call those things that be not as though they were.”

God endowed you with the creative power of speech. You must say what you want. You must feel what you want. Your next level of reality must be experienced before it is actually manifested. For example, some people will not experience their breakthrough until they change their wardrobe. You will never actualize wealth if your surroundings impact your imagination with the image of poverty. You have to feel this thing! You have to get to the place where you can see yourself in the picture!

Desire is the proof that your dreams truly exists. They already exist! God said that all of His promises are “yes” (2 Cor. 1:20), and He is waiting for you to utter the “Amen.” When you begin to feel this thing, you will discover another dimension. After you see it, you will have to get into the posture of meditation, which is that state of mind. You are going to have to breathe into the thing that you want. God breathed into man, and man became a living soul. What will happen when you begin to breathe into your dreams? You have to become one with them. The word must become incarnate within you.

The “logos” word of God is the Bible, which we all read and from which we draw knowledge. But there is also another book, the “rhema book” of your life. This “rhema book” is sealed, yet it contains the essence of the intentions of God concerning you. No one else can fit that book. It is tailor made just for you. It has been pre-cut to fit you exactly.

If anyone else attempts to put on your “rhema,” they will come up short. It will look out of place on them. Saul tried to get David to stand in his “rhema” but Saul’s armor was useless to David. It was too heavy, too big, and impossible for him to wield. David had to discover his own personal “rhema” which God designed for him. He had to pick up the five smooth stones that were preordained from the foundation of the world to serve as his weaponry against Goliath. (1 Sam 17:38-50) Your “rhema” is enough to win any battle! You must get a hold of the rhema word of God. You must discover that which is in the book that God has written concerning you!

The wealth that God has laid up for you is already around you. It is at your feet; it is in your hands. However, you must begin to call it forth. You have to decree some things. You have to start prophesying to the winds, for prophecy is the vehicle that pulls the invisible into the realm of the visible. If you don’t feel it, you will not birth it. In order to give birth, you must feel the labor pains. Some people may have canceled some things out when they said, “I’m not moved by what I feel.” However, you must reverse that statement because your knowledge is growing from a lesser to a greater light.

Jacob stole the birthright of Esau because he felt his wealth. The birthright is the right to give birth. Isaac said to his son Jacob, “Come close so that I may feel you. I need to touch you, and based upon what I feel will determine how I will distribute my blessing.” God is saying for you to come into the “secret closet.” He wants you to come close so that He can feel you, come close so that He can touch you. The thing that you need to believe God for is in the Spirit. God wants you to come and buy, for it is in the Spirit waiting for you.

The Mystique of Money

#73

Make friends with “dirty money” but do not enter into a convenantal relationship with unrighteousness.

It is not God’s desire for his people to live in a continual state of want and need. Ignorance mixed with religiosity has created an enigma, a mystery of the gospel which has remained hidden to most of us for generations. The fact is that when Jesus first announced His call to the ministry, He began with a very obvious implication. “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me to preach the gospel to the poor.” (Isa. 61:1) The “gospel” is the “good news.” Therefore, Jesus wanted to bring good news to the poor. He wanted to let the poor know that they did not have to be poor anymore. It becomes overwhelmingly apparent that God does not get any joy out of our lack, for Jesus came to give us life, and that more abundantly.
Finally...

Make friends with “dirty money” but do not enter into a covenantal relationship with unrighteousness.

“And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.” (Lk. 16:19) Jesus has commanded us to make friends with mammon of unrighteousness. In other words, we are to make friends with “dirty money.” You need to know how to use the avenues of revenue that are brought into your path. You must become “friends” with money, yet never enter into a covenantal relationship with those that are unrighteous. We are to use the minds that God has given us, for he wants us to be “wise as serpents and harmless as doves,” for there is a wisdom that must be pursued in the handling of money.

Understand money, but do not be controlled by it.

“No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.” (Matt. 6:24). Money is the only substance that Jesus placed on the same level as God. Jesus said, “Serve God or mammon.” Money should be understood because of the power it exerts, and because we are called to multiply the substance which God places in our hands. Yet money must never supplant God as our Lord and Savior. Our dependency must always rest upon Him.

“The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing; but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.” (Prov. 13:4) If energy is not exerted, then money cannot grow. It will stagnate. It will rot and diminish before your eyes. The multiplication of money requires the energy of thought and labor, for wealth is the reward for wisdom in action.
Cosmic Economics

Cosmic Principle #75

Wealth grows where you exert energy.

"Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom; And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shut." (Matt. 25:1-10)

Cosmic Principle #76

Opportunity wastes no time with the unprepared.

Opportunities will pass those who are not prepared to take advantage of the harvest. Like the ten virgins, only five were in the state of readiness. The other five missed their opportunity to feast with the king because they were unprepared. The king was not about to inconvenience himself by waiting for them to get their act together. The show went on, and they missed their moment. How many times have you missed your moment in life because you were unprepared?
Money is at its best when it is not hoarded, but allowed to circulate in your life. The power of money is wasted when it is laid up without a purpose. Money works most diligently for those who can apply it to profitable work. “Then he that had received the five talents went and traded the same, and made them other five talents.” (Matt. 25:16) Money is designed to sustain the ideas of wise men and reward them with profit. It will follow lucrative ideas because money loves to increase. Money seeks the level of man’s wisdom, and will not increase beyond that barrier.

Money is currency, and currency is designed to flow.

Like a woman, the persona of money must be courted. Money will cleave to those who treat “her” with care, and will flee from those who are rude and ignorant towards “her.” There are authorities in the earth concerning money. When the skillful fail to sit at the feet of masters, they convince money that they are not only ignorant, but unwilling to learn. The intelligence of money demands that money leave when “she” is disrespected.

“Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. (Mal. 3:10) Giving the “first fruit”, the tithe, positions you for the blessings of the Lord that maketh rich and addeth no sorrow. The Scripture says that the “windows of heaven are opened,” in other words, the windows (your eyes) of heaven (your understanding) will open, and ideas will be given to you that will produce wealth on your behalf.

The tithe is not a gift, it is the law. It is a commandment. It is impossible to give what does not belong to you. The tithe already belongs to God. You are compelled to place yourself in the way of obedience to the law of God. The tithe is 10%. Anything beyond the tithe qualifies as an offering. In other words, your giving begins at 11%. If you are under financial captivity, check your tithing. If your tithing is secure, then you need to check to see whether you are violating another law of God.

You must tithe.

"Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts." (Mal. 3:10-11) There is a wild beast crouching at your door waiting to avenge your disobedience to God, waiting to retrieve that which belongs to God and devour your substance without your permission. You can think of it like a trained pit bull. Your disobedience yells, “Sick ’em!” and the dog goes on attack. So when you refuse to tithe, your car suddenly breaks down and demands the money, or you get sick, or an unexpected bill appears, or you get fired. The pressure is on, and the only recourse of wisdom is to bring yourself back into a place of covenantal obedience before God and tithe according to His commandment.

You can continue doing the same thing that you have been doing at your present level, or you can change your approach and create a new cycle for your future. You must do something you have never done to obtain something you never had. Your seed will determine what you come into.

How you handle money will reveal your personal integrity, or lack thereof. If you are a worshipper of God, then money will rest where your heart is. If you never sow into the work of God, then you are not a lover of God from your heart, for your treasure will rest where your heart is. They are indubitably linked because your money will follow your passion. If you have a love for people, your money will flow into the lives of others to bring empowerment, contentment, and joy. However, if your money is stagnant, and you keep it hidden away, never allowing it to circulate, what does that say to your heart?

Money magnifies who you are because it allows you to be seen when you would otherwise be hidden. If you are essentially good, money will magnify your wisdom and righteousness. But if you are essentially evil, money will magnify your evil, and will see your foolishness. The world is bound to the god of money. Mammon is his name. Mammon's wife, the labor god, dictates the behavior of individuals around the world. It will force people to leave their homes in the dead of night regardless of the weather, to meet its demands. It will force mothers to abandon their parental duties so that money may be acquired. It will force people to tolerate behavior that insults their intelligence and destroys self-esteem, that money may be obtained. It will force people to regiment their time in order that money be obtained.

The god of money rules the behavior of men who have not broken control of its voice, the “sound of need.” The world continuously asks questions, and money continues to answer their dilemmas. However, we must discern the seasons of God.

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.” (Ecc. 3:1-8) "To everything there is a season," is a literal truth, for everything is a byproduct of the law of sowing and reaping. You must discern the seasons of God to know what steps to take at particular times, so that you are not trying to plant flowers in the winter and pick apples in the spring. Seasons are also influenced by location. In January you can dress in shorts and a tee shirt in Hawaii, but not in Maine. The seasons of God are also influenced by His divine placement of your life. Therefore, it is important to know which moves to make at which season in order to prosper and be in health.

"While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.” (Gen. 8:22) Whatever you plant today will bring a harvest tomorrow, whether good or bad. Everything that you are experiencing today is the fruit of a seed that was sown in either your past or the past of former generations. Therefore, it behooves you to calculate what you are showing for the future. Are you sowing money to reap money? Are you sowing love to reap love? Are you sowing kindness to reap kindness? Are you sowing sin to reap disaster?

“And Joseph called the name of the first born Manasseh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and my father’s house.” (Gen. 41:51) The wisdom to acquire money will always produce more. This can explain why many millionaires go bankrupt but emerge as millionaires within a year or two of their devastation. Their millions are in their MINDS! Wisdom produced money in the first place, and so it is always replaceable if the laws of reproduction are followed.

People fail because they lack the ability to organize details.

Many people fail because they lack the ability to organize details. When you lack the ability to organize details, you leave yourself at the mercy of an unorganized mind, whose thoughts wander and meander into the path of least resistance.

Many people fail because they harbor a fear of takeover. Insecurity invites its cousins, fear and envy, that will cause you to hurt at another person’s success. Insecurity will block you from acknowledging that you need help, and lead you into the “Superman” trap. You will be deluded into thinking that you can leap over tall buildings with a single bound, and bend steel with your bare hands because you are greater than everyone else. This attitude is treacherous and will generate failure.

People fail because they harbor a fear of takeover.
People fail because their fear of being replaced will eliminate their ability to mentor. This attitude will cause a person to hoard knowledge unto themselves in a vain attempt to appear superior to others. While they refuse to duplicate themselves, thinking that they are creating job security, they are poisoning themselves with pride and breaking the law of sowing and reaping. If you sow wisdom, you will reap wisdom.

Cosmic Principle #85

People fear because of their fear of being replaced.

“For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me. I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.” (Job 3:25-26) Fear will torment you and rob you of peace and prosperity. Every idea is worth money, but if you do not believe in its value, you will never receive the key to work the field that your idea was called to prepare. Some one else will see what you refused to see, and they will reap where you have not sown.

You will always move toward the most dominant thought in your mind. If success dominates your thoughts, you will move toward success. If failure dominates your thoughts, you will move toward failure. You are the sum total of your thoughts, for riches always begin inside of a person, never on the outside. Therefore, any desire that you hold in your mind will eventually seek an expression of its own. The realm of thought is the realm of dimensional reality. What you think already exists. If you can see it in your sight, your sight is the proof of its existence. Whatever thought you hold in your mind already exists, but it is just a matter of time before it will manifest in the physical realm.

“The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and be added no sorrow with it.” (Prov. 10:22) The blessing of the Lord is ordained to remain for those who operate in wisdom, truth and justice. Impure motives will corrupt and cause it to flee, for eventually the “weed” seeds sown will produce a harvest of loss. When you are moving according to the laws of God and in the wisdom of God, seeking the kingdom of God first and his righteousness, then wealth will continuously grow and multiply, for it is subject to the laws of the universe.

True wealth will only last when it is based on truth and justice.

You must always have a definite aim. If you fail to have a definite target, or a goal, distractions will change your course in life. The story is told of a young man who wanted to know the secret of creating gold and silver. He was told by an old man that only one woman in the world knew the answer. The young man began a search that took him around the world for the next ten years searching for this woman and the answer to his question. He finally found the woman living in a castle on the side of a mountain. He climbed his way to the wall of the castle, scaled the wall, and after much difficulty with the guards, he managed to gain an audience with the woman. The women, devastatingly beautiful, greeted him warmly and told him he could only ask her one question since her husband was away on an expedition and was expected to be home soon.
The man proceeded to ask her, "What time is your husband coming home?" His ten year search for the secret of gold and silver proved to be an illusion, for, evidently, the true thought in his mind was the lust for the woman, which distracted him from his original stated purpose, and caused him to waste ten years and the opportunity for greatness upon the base desires of his flesh. The moral of this story is, distraction is a thief.

"Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser; teach a just man, and he will increase in learning." (Prov. 9:9) It is your responsibility to draw your own conclusions concerning your financial future. You must remove the pictures of poverty from your thoughts and replace them with thoughts, pictures and images of prosperity. You must decide to apply the laws to your own life, and put them into constant practice. No one can do it for you.

You must make yourself attractive to money. Entertain wisdom. Prepare a place for "her" to dwell. Prepare accounts for "her" to multiply within. Prepare your mind to entertain "her" presence. "She" cannot come if there is no habitation for "her." Money has the ability to magnify your voice so that you can be heard above the din of this world. A poor man may be wise, but his wisdom will be lost in the clamor of poverty. Wealth creates a platform that can demand change.

There is one power, and that is of God. Poverty and prosperity are different sides of the same power. God said, "Choose you this day blessings or cursing; life or death." (Deut. 30:19) It is your choice as to which side of the power you will entertain in your life. The power of your tongue is often misunderstood, yet you have the ability to speak and decree a thing and it will be established. Every situation in your life is a byproduct of your own mind. Your understanding has determined what you are "standing under." You already have what you have said in the past, but what are you speaking for the future?
Destiny is not left up to chance, but it is a matter of choice.

COSMIC MEDITATION AND AFFIRMATION

Close your eyes. Get yourself into a comfortable position. Move into prayer; into a state desired, where you are going to come into the divine right of the kind of inheritance you are ordained to possess at this time in your life. All that the Father has is yours, but it's up to you to take possession of it. Take possession of your divine son-ship or daughter-ship, which is your divine one-ship.

I now realize the truth of God concerning me. I take possession of the kingdom of God in me and of His loving and divine right actions as they are happening around me and flowing through me. All things are added unto me right here and right now, because I'm going up at once and possess my God-given spirit of power and of love and of a sound mind. I seize the realization and demonstration of my God-given health, my God-given happiness, my God-given love, my God-given success, prosperity and infinite money. As I am moving through the corridors of life, I am getting excited about the life I am ordained to live. I'm putting exclamation points into my thinking and into my living. I'm going forth into life with positive expectations because I realize that life meets me, just like I meet life. I am excited about life and I expect God, good, and nothing but good. I expect happiness, for the joy of the Lord is my strength. I expect love, for God is love, and my whole life is a great romance. I expect success and prosperity, for I meditate in the law of the Lord day and night. I expect money, for God gives us all things, richly, to enjoy. Money answereth all things. I have the answer of all things. I resurrect my hopes, my wishes and my dreams. Now I go to a room in the theater of my imagination, and in that room are my dreams, hopes and wishes. I have within my hand a rod that can command the reality through the thinking of my mind. I now resurrect all my hopes, all my wishes and my dreams by putting them on and feeling them. And through that feeling nature I am now creating a new reality. Why are these things resurrecting around me as I take up their nature? Because I am the resurrection and the life. Thank you, God in me, for the truth in me, which is God. I am good health. I am well. I am total well-being. I am the joy of the Lord, ever-flowing and overflowing. I am the love of God. I am success. I am prosperity. I am money in every form and amount I need and want, and infinitely more. I pay all the energy, the love, the power, the belief of my mind to God, to good, to the good that I desire to be, to do and to have. I pay no mind to negative thoughts. I will pay my energy in the direction of God, for currency is only consciousness, and consciousness is the only currency. I am excited about life. I am excited about what God in me is doing. Now that I have resurrected all of my dreams, my hopes and my wishes and I feel things these are so I decree that the abundance of God begins to come to me and become multiplied in me, and through me, as me. Feeling is thinking on its deepest level in the heart. That is why I raise and resurrect these things based on my feeling. Feeling is the final form of the thinking process. All modes of thinking end up as feeling in the subconscious mind. Therefore I dwell and work from within. I feel my blessing and it is so because feeling is thinking on the deepest level. Feeling is the final form of the thinking process. Thank you, God in me, for this feeling nature, this gift of feeling You have given to me. Thank you, God in me, for this feeling. “I Am” is feeling through me.”
